

WBE:

MONRO, Daniel

2^x (duplic)

A minister who preached in London.

'Daniel Monro of Stockton, Durham, aged about 72 years died 14th of 10th month/1715' (3) 1 [December]

John Smith's Ms., 2:487

3 'Ministers deceased' (MS Vol. 19) p. 16.

WBE:

MONRO, Daniel

2+

A minister who preached in London.

John Smith's Ms., 2:487

WBE: c
(prepared by RB)

MONROE, William Coe, 1850-1914

b. 12 Feb. 1850 in Woonsocket, Rhode Island, son of Abel and Rebecca Coe Monroe.

ed., Moses Brown School, Providence, R.I.

Lifelong Friend.

Beloved physician.

m. (1st) Carrie Remington (d.1889)

m., (2nd) Jean McGregor Dewar. (1911)

Member of Executive Board and Finance Committee of Moses Brown School.

Chief of Staff and chairman of the Medical Board of the Woonsocket Hospital

Trustee of the State Sanitorium for tubercular patients.

Active in the interest of the city and the state.

d. 11 Mar. 1914 in Woonsocket, Rhode Island, aged 65 yrs.

The Am. Fd., 2(1914), 237-8

WBE:

MONTAGUE,

(Lady)

1654, convinced at Captain Bradford's house in Yorkshire by George Fox.

Hirst, Qu. in Peace & War, 48

Jour. of Geo, Fox, Bi-cent. ed., I:195

MONTFORD, Amy

(1886 - 1968)

✓

Amy Montford was born in 1886 in London, the daughter of George () and Elizabeth Sarah (b.) Montford. She was educated at Friends School, Saffron Walden, The Mount and at Westfield College, London, where she gained her B.A. degree. She taught at Sidcot for two and a half years taking the younger children and then returned to York as head mistress of the junior school at The Mount, where she stayed for twelve years.

In 1924, partly because her parents' needs drew her to London (1) and also because of her interest in Friends work overseas she took up the post of assistant secretary to the Friends Service Council, in charge of home field work. This service she performed for 22 years until she retired in 1946, with marked success. During this time she also served as secretary of the India Committee and visited India, Syria and Palestine in 1927-28.

She also retained a strong interest in her old school at Saffron Walden, she was for many years a member of the school committee and was president of the Old Scholars Association in 1936-37. She served on a number of Friends central committees.(2)

In later years she retired to Avenue House, Bristol and died from there in hospital on January 9, 1968 at the age of 81.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE The Friend Vol 126 (1968) pp 68. 189.

REFERENCES & NOTES

1. London & Middlesex QM printed list of members for 1925 records her at Wanstead.
2. Typescript Committee Index - Friends Ho. Library.

Friends Foreign Missions Assocn.	1916 - 1924.
Institute Committee	1926 - 1928
Friends Service Council	1947 - 1958/9, 1960 - 1967
Meeting for Sufferings	1949/50, 1950/51, 1959/60 - 1960/61.
Agenda Committee	1931 - 1934, 1943/44.
Committee on Clerks	1934/36, 1941/5.
Home Service Committee
Education Committee

WBE:

2+

deMONTMORENCY, Jane, nee Henderson, 1853-1943

b. Aug. 21, 1853 in Glasgow, Scotland, daughter of Joseph and Isabella Henderson.

Emigrated to Norwich Township, Ontario, Canada.

1875 requested membership in Friends meeting in the area.

m. 1871, Robert de Montmorency. 12 children.

Occasionally appeared in the ministry and in middle years was appointed an Elder.

1924 a year after her husband's death she took a trip to visit meetings in North Carolina, Ohio and Iowa in company with other Friends.

d. June 10, 1943 at the home in Ontario, Canada, of her daughter Mrs. Charles Walker in Norwich,

B.C.

Information given by her sister Agnes (Henderson) Pollard

Canadian Friend, 40(1943)No. 3 (Aug.): 20 J
B.C.

WBE:

MOODY, Deborah, nee Dunch, (Lady), c.1600-1659

b. c.1600 in Wiltshire, England, daughter of Walter and Dunch.

ed. Was taught to read latin and other skills.

m., 1622, Sir Henry Moody (d.1632) 1son, 1 dau.

They lived at Garesdon, Wiltshire on an estate. After his death she was restive and deeply interested in the currents of the time religiously. Visited in London.

c.1640 emigrated to vicinity of Lynn, Mass. in search of freedom of worship. Bought over 400 acres of land near Salem. Differed with local church people on the matter of infant baptism.

c.1642/3 Came to the Dutch settlement in New York and was allowed to purchase a big tract at Gravesend, on Long Island where she laid out a town. Continued to encourage freedom of worship. One of the earliest Friends meetings ever held in America was held in her home, although there is no evidence that she herself ever joined Friends.

Her home was subject to attack from Indians on several occasions. She had a very fine personal library.

d. c.1659 at Gravesend, L.I., aged about 59 years.

Gerard, Lady Deborah Moody

Flick, Lady Deborah Moody, Grand Dame of Gravesend

N.Y. Yearly Meeting, Bicentennial Anniversary, 1895, 9-10

MOODY, Evelyn Mary (1905 ? - 1976)

E. Mary Moody was born in about the year 1905(1) in Shropshire, the daughter of a Church of England clergyman. She was educated at a grammar school in Oswestry, Dartford College of Physical Education, and then went on to teach in Bristol and Stoke-on-Trent, later she took up work with the unemployed on Tyneside and taught adult physical education in Cornwall.

In 1948 she became senior case-worker with the Liverpool Personal Service Society, a voluntary family case-work agency. During her training as a social worker she stayed with Kathleen Slack (1910-qv.) when her interest in Quakerism was stimulated and later in Southport she applied for membership and was accepted.(2)

She gave devoted support to Southport Meeting through times of low membership and a period without a meeting house and was one of the small band of Friends who saw their faith rewarded in the building of the new meeting house in 1960.

As a social worker her special concern was with the difficult district of Liverpool 8. She was a founder member of the Liverpool Quaker Penal Affairs Group which opened Canning House, the hostel for homeless ex-prisoners in 1967. After its closure the group opened a house of flatlets with resident housekeeper which (in 1976) is proving a great success.

She died suddenly, at the wheel of her car, on the way home from Meeting for Worship, on Sunday, April 4 1976 aged 71.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE The Friend Vol 134 (1976) p. 727

REFERENCES AND NOTES

1. We have no date of birth. She was aged 71 at death.
2. Lancs. & Cheshire QM printed lists of members record her as attending Southport Meeting from 1950 and as a member in 1954.

SGJ. 1976.

WBE:

X
2

MOODY, Martin, c.1772-1798

b. c.1772 in Woodbury, Conn., son of Zimri and Esther Moody. They were Episcopalian.

ed. had a liberal education. M.M. became uneasy with the ceremonial parts of Episcopal worship. He moved south to Rahway, N.J. and met Friends. Again moved to Evesham and met Friends at Mt. Laurel.

1795 joined Friends and was recognized a minister.

His occupation was teaching.

1798 went to attend Phila. Yearly Meeting at a time when yellow fever was rampant. He took the fever.

d. Oct. 6, 1798 at Cropwell, N.J., aged 26 years.

Comly, Frds. Misc., II:385; VIII:216

Jos. Smith's Cat., 2:182

MOODY, Mary (1905?-1976)

see MOODY, Evelyn Mary (1905?-1976)

WBE:

MOON, Charles, 1820-1888

b. 1820 and lived at Woodbourne, Bucks County, Penna.

[ed. Westtown School - enter'd 1833

m. Mary Eastburn of Bristol, Pa.] B.C.

Wrote To my friends and neighbors... (1886?)

Frds. Hist. Lib., Sw., BX 7616

[Westtown School, Catalogue, 90, 132] B.C.

WBE:

MOON, James H., 1830-1923

b. Jan. 27, 1830, in Bucks County, Pa., son of James and Jane (Haines) Moon.

[ed. Westtown School-entered Oct. 1845] BC

m. Elizabeth Balderston. children.

They made their home near Fallsington, Penna. He served as an Elder in the meeting.

Wrote (1902) Water baptism...; 1909, Why Friends (Quakers) do not baptize with water...

d. Jan. 19, 1923 near Fallsington in his 93rd year.

The Friend (Phila.) 96(1923):370

Hinshaw, Encyc., 2:965

[Westtown School, Catalogue, 127-129] BC

WBE:

MOON, James M., 1858-

b. May 12, 1858, probably in Bucks County, Penna., son of Mahlon and Jane (Craft) Moon.

ed. Westtown School - entered November 1872.

m. Ezretta Jones of Germantown who graduated from Westtown in 1879. She died in 1939 and J.M. was still living at that time. Their home was at Morris Heights, Penns. Children - son. R. Barclay, etc.

An Elder of his meeting J.M. also served from 1906-1927 on the Committee for Westtown School.

d.

(As this is written in 1968 he must be presumed dead)

Hinshaw, Ency., 2:965

The Friend (Phila.), 112(1938-39):417

Frds. Intel., 80:61

WBE:

92

MOON (also MOONE), John fl.1650-85

b. in Carhouse, Parish of Garstang, Lancashire, England.

By trade a husbandman. He joined Friends and was recognized a minister.

1657 - struck in the face by a priest. In the same year he wrote The true light made manifest...
In 1658 he published The revelation of Jesus Christ unto John Moon...

1666, signed an important letter from ministers.
Also, wrote The great Trumpet of the Lord God Almighty ...blown...

1676 Was imprisoned in Lancaster and had goods distrainted. Afterwards removed to Bristol. In 1681 he was imprisoned in Bristol and also in Cambridge.
1682 suffered constraint of corn and household goods.

1683 accepted liberty in order to emigrate to Pennsylvania.

d. Pennsylvania.

Braithwaite, Sec. Per. of Qu., 235, 248, 411

Besse, I:54,55,88,255,393, 321, 326

Sos. Smith's Cat., 2:182

WBE:

MOON (also MOONE), Paul fl.1680's

A currier, he lived in Bristol, England.

m., Priscilla

1680, In prison in Newgate Gaol, Bristol.

1681 wrote A visitation of love to all people,

1683 Fined £ 220 for absence from National

Worship and £ 30 for his wife's account.

Besse, I:53,69,70

Jos. Smith's Cat., 2:183

MOON, Priscilla (1743-1813) after 1766 James

[Priscilla Moon, daughter of James Moon (-) and his wife Elizabeth (born of Bristol, was married in 1766 to William James (1738/9-1806 qv).]

See JAMES, Priscilla (1743-1813) born Moon]

Aug
MEG New 1982

WBE:

MOON, Robert Barclay, 1890-

WBE gives information about this Friend who is still living and hence we are not including it.

WBE:

MOON, Samuel Craft, 1854-1911

b. March 4, 1854 near Morrisville, Pa., son of J. Mahlon Moon and Jane (Craft) Moon.

ed. Westtown School - entered Oct., 1868

A nurseryman by profession. Had a well-known garden center near Morrisville, Pa.

m. 1887, (Rachel) Anna Price. 1 daughter ~~Jane~~

Served as Overseer and also for 23 years on the Committee for Westtown School. He stood in the tradition of John Bartram and Humphrey Marshall. He was useful in service to Friends as Elder and member of committees. Always was cheerful, interesting and hospitable.

d. Jan. 21, 1911 near Morrisville, Pa. in his 57th year.

The Friend (Phila.), 84(1911):239,328

Information from Jane Moon Snipes

WBE:

MOOR, Jane

later Fisher 1789-1877

see FISHER, Jane

WBE:

MOOR, Peter

f1.1890

Lived in Yorkshire as a youth.

Samuel Neale persuaded him as a youth to go to Ireland and become a miller there. Having sailed from England he was seized by a press gang and ordered to practice firing guns. He said that he was a Quaker and would not fight. They then set upon him and robbed him of his money and most of his clothes, after which they set him ashore in Kerry County, Ireland with only the clothes on his back. Irish peasants gave him food and shelter, as he made his way to Cork.

m. Sarah Chamberlain, an Irish Friend. They settled at Youghal. Had one daughter Jane, later married to Abraham Fisher. (See biog. of Jane Moor Fisher)
Peter and Sarah were married c. 1788.

d.

An. Mon. (N.S.) 36(1878):79 (Jane Moor Fisher)

WBE:

2+

MOOR, Richard

Lived in Salop, England

Recognized a minister among Friends and in 1662 paid a visit to Wales. Was with Richard Davies at a meeting at Dolobran. Charles Lloyd was convinced on this occasion. Thomas was convinced somewhat later.

John Smith's Ms. 2:513

Frds. Lib. (Phila) 13:15

WBE:

MOORE, Andrew, 1688-1753

b. August 1688 in County Antrim, Ireland, son of James and Moore.

m. 1715 In Ireland to Margaret Miller, who perhaps died there before the family emigrated to America.

Landed at New Castle, Del.

1723 were settled in Sadsbury township, Chester County, Penna. Requested transfer of membership from home meeting in Ireland to America. An elder of meeting.

m. (2d) Rachel Halliday (d. after 1784)

The family had a tub mill on Octararo Creek. Were instrumental in establishing Sadsbury Meeting.

d. Sept. 5, 1753 at Sadsbury, Pa., aged about 65.

Comly, Frds. Misc., IV:26

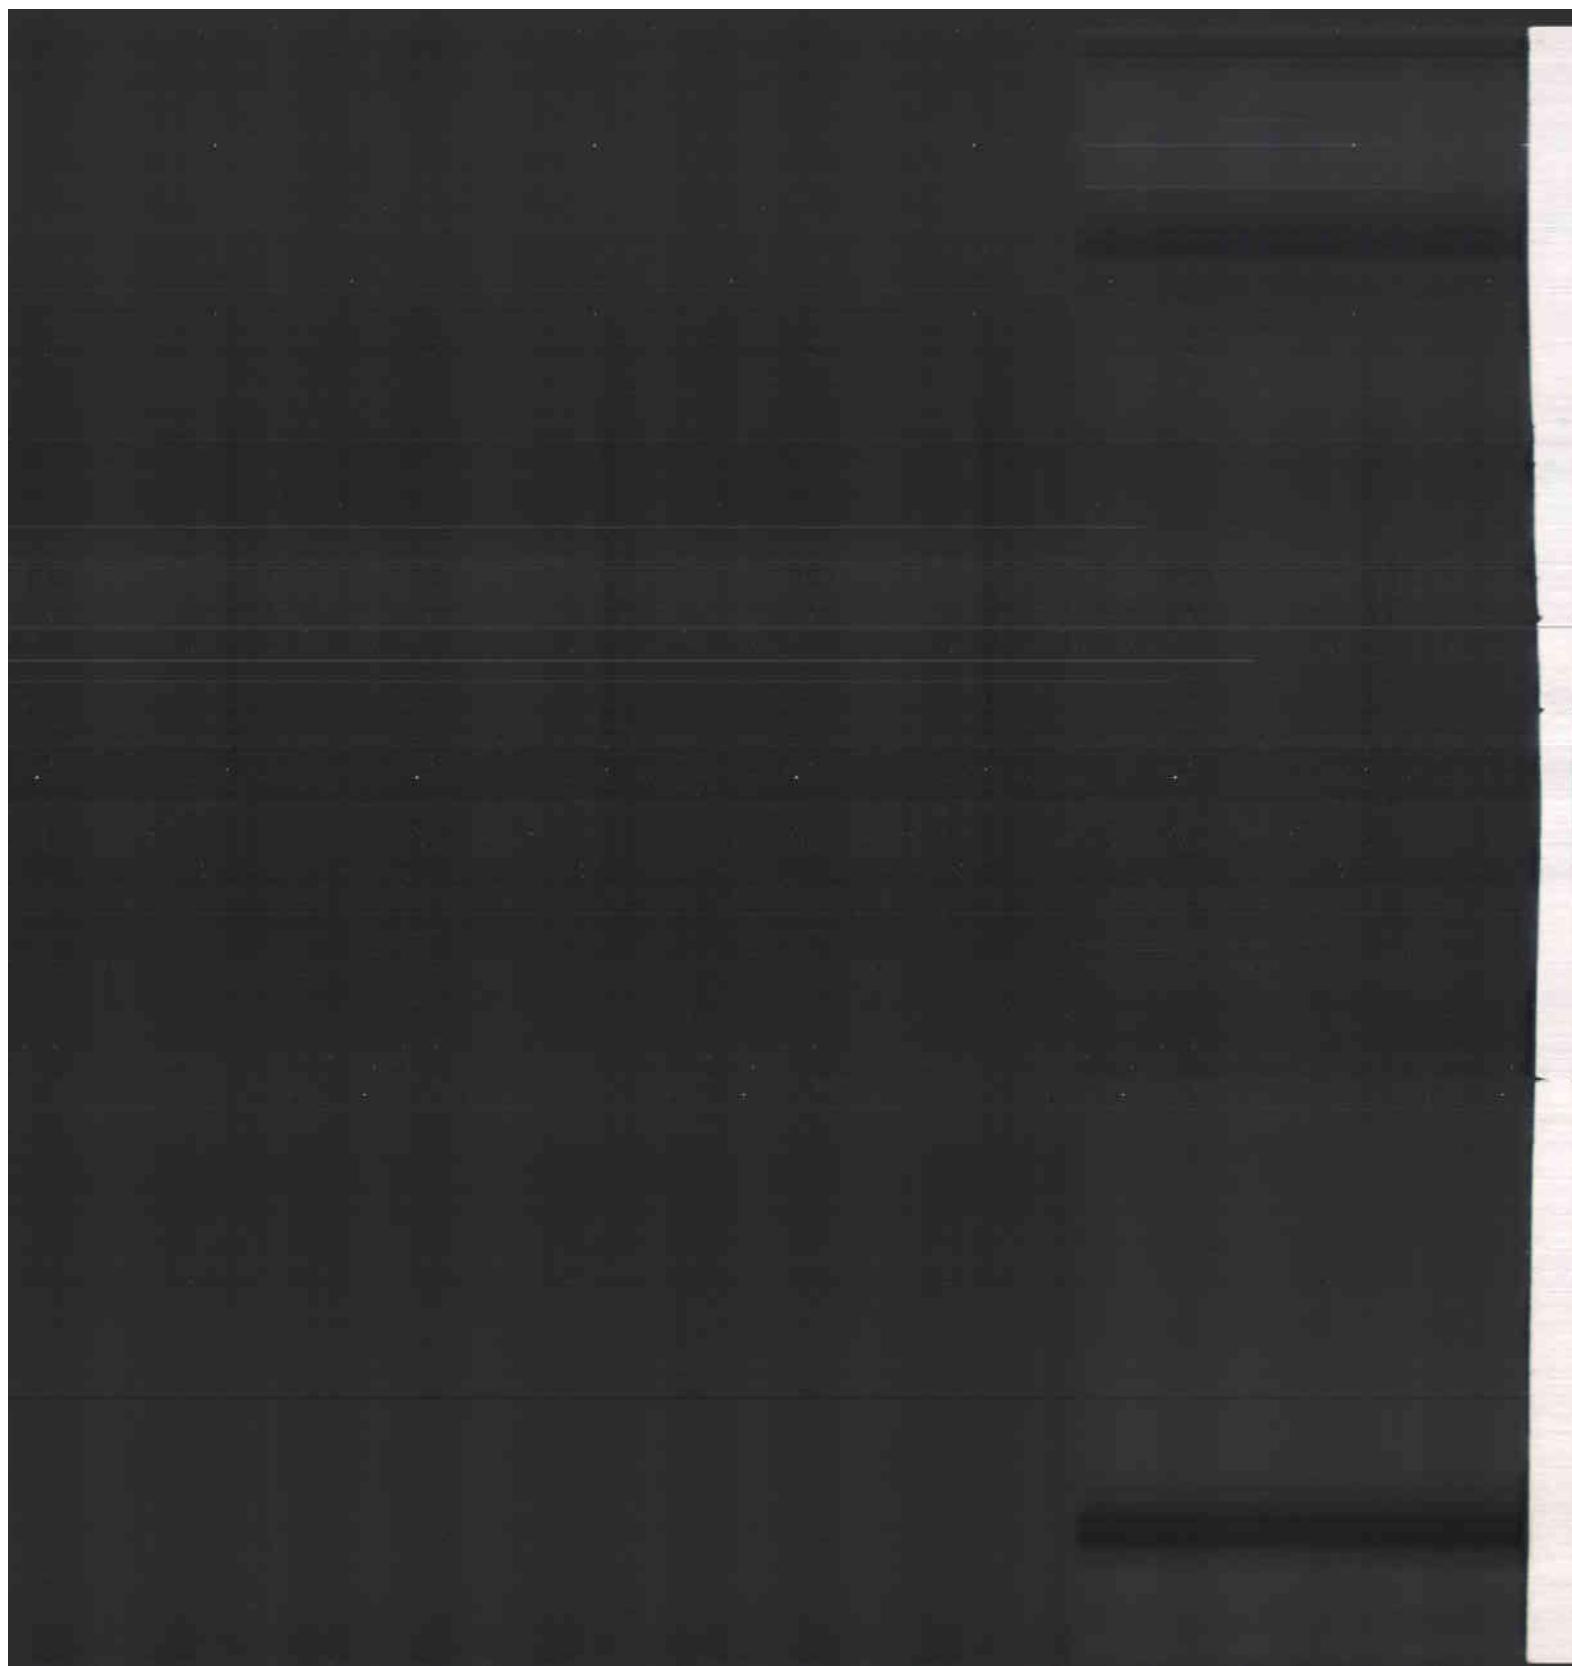

Haines, Ancestry of Sharpless Moore..., 16,19

Passmore, Andrew Moore and his descendants, 7 et seq.

WBE:a

MOORE, Ann, ca. 1818-1899.

SEE HAINES, Ann, nee MOORE, ca. 1818-1899.

WBE:

3

MOORE, Ann, nee Harbut or Herbert, 1710-1783

b. Nov. 16, 1710 in Pennsylvania, daughter of and Harbut (or Herbert)

1738 recognized a minister.

m. Walter Moore, who was disowned or resigned from some body among Friends. They had children.

1752 removed to Pennsylvania from Maryland.

In 1752 in company with Sarah Bolton visited Maryland and Virginia. In 1753 she removed with her husband and family to the environs of Gunpowder Monthly Mtg.

1756-60 travelled in New England, Penna and New Jersey in the ministry.

1760-61 while en route to Great Britain her ship was taken captive and carried to Spain.

1778 visited Penna. and New York passing through the military lines. Kept a journal.

d. Nov. 11, 1783 in Baltimore in her 73rd year.

Balt. Y.M., Memorials (1833), 3

Comly, Frds. Misc., IV:289

Jos. Smith's Cat., Sup., 250

WBE:

3

MOORE, Ann, nee Starr, 1717-1761

b. 1 XI 1717 in Chester County, Penna., daughter of Jeremiah and Rebecca (Jackson) Starr.

m., 1741 James Moore of Sadsbury, Lancs. County, Penna.

1742 appeared in the ministry at first with only a very few words. By 1758 her husband was also a minister and they visited Maryland and Virginia in the ministry.

1761 Ann Moore travelled herself. She was very helpful to neighbors in affliction.

d. August 12, 1761 in Sadsbury, aged $43\frac{1}{2}$ years.

The Friend (Phila.), 33:53

Passmore, Andrew Moore and his descendants, 23 et seq

WBE:

MOORE, Anna, afterwards Merritt, later Thorne, 1766-1838

see

THORNE, Anna M., nee Moore

MOORE, Arthur Cecil

(1896 - 1981)

Arthur Moore was born at Longtown, Cumbria on December 29, 1896 into a high church Anglican family. He joined the Army early in the first world war and in 1919 in Leeds recovering from a wound he met his future wife, Gertrude Margaret Meadows. He also met and became the first employee of a Mr. & Mrs. Appleyard who were setting up the firm of motor car dealers and engineers which became well known in Leeds. He served this firm until he was 70 and encountered the many problems which the car industry faces with an integrity which was valued by his colleagues and fellow workers. He had wanted to be a doctor but twice he came near to exercising his gift for this, during the second world war when he was transferred to welfare work and after his retirement when the firm of Appleyards appointed him to visit their eighty five pensioners to their benefit and to his own content.

He married Margaret Meadows in 1924 and together they joined the Society of Friends in 1933 (1) and he was an active member of Roundhay Meeting and of Leeds MM for many years, giving much service to Quaker concerns in the north of England. He was a governor of The Retreat from 1944 - 1976 and it was not only his committee service but his warmth, enthusiasm and the great good humour of his outgoing personality which was valued. He was also deeply concerned with the Yorkshire Friends Service Committee of which he was treasurer for sixteen years and he was careful and wise in the use of its funds. One of its activities was a regular Easter settlement which he and Margaret attended for many years often as host and hostess. He had a great love for and knowledge of the countryside and his interests were mainly out of doors, in his garden, in beekeeping and in fishing. A serious operation in 1973 left him with claustrophobia so that the meeting missed the warmth of his presence but his garden blossomed even more brightly.

He died on May 15, 1981 aged 84.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Testimony of Leeds MM

Y.M.Procs. 1982 pp 291-2

REFERENCES & NOTES

1. Yorkshire QM printed lists of members record them in 1934 at Roundhay Meeting, Leeds as members with children as follows:-

Daphne Margaret	1925
Derryck Rolfe	1926

MOORE, Caroline (fl 1868-1883) after Pim

[Caroline Moore, daughter of Hugh Moore of Dublin, was married prior to 1868 to Robert Barclay Pim (1840- qv).]

See PIM, Caroline (fl 1868-1883) born Moore]

WBE:

MOORE, Charlotte Emma, 1893-

WBE includes some material about this living Friend which we are not including.

MOORE, Christopher (-1689)

Christopher Moore was of Richmond, Yorks. in 1655 (cf. Besse, ii. 94 f.). of the Forest of Knaresborough, Yorks., when he d. on 9 March 1689 (Q.M. Bur. Reg. for Yorks.). cf. Besse, ii. 96, 151.

Note by G.F. Nuttall in Early quaker letters, 1952, p.67

MOORE, Claude (1864-1927)

Claude Moore was born in Leeds in 1864. He removed to Bentham and lived there for eleven years during his youth and early manhood and took an active interest in the community life. He was the founder and first secretary of the local sick club, a leader of the YoungMens' Class and a keen temperance worker.

He removed to Sheffield to be private secretary to Henry Joseph Wilson at that time a member of Parliament. After the death of Henry J. Wilson, Claude Moore became commercial manager of a well-known steel manufacturing firm where he remained for the rest of his life.

It was in Bentham that he first came into touch with Friends, he and his wife being regular attenders at meeting, but they did not join the Society until they had lived in Sheffield some time. (1) He devoted a great deal of his limited spare time to the service of the Society. He was Clerk to the Preparative Meeting for fifteen years until his death. He was an elder and was very faithful to and in this office.

He was an active member and worker in the Adult School movement especially at Bunhill and at the Princess Adult school at Sheffield. He also devoted much time and effort to the Sheffield Children's Holiday Association, the Guild of Help and subsequently the Council of Social Service as well as to the organisation of various relief funds in the city.

He was a man of strong convictions and simple sincerity, characterized by sound common sense and reliability.

He died 4 December 1927, suddenly, after a day filled with typical activity - attendance at early morning Adult school, at meeting for worship and at Preparative meeting; in the afternoon a Young Friends Conference and an Adult school fellowship meeting which lasted late into the evening.

/cont

MOORE, Elizabeth (1675?-1754) formerly Holmes, born Osborne

Elizabeth Osborne, the daughter of William Osborne of Northampton, was born about the year 1675(1).

She was married firstly in 1699 to Joseph Holmes (1675-1722/3 qv), a citizen and weaver of London and there were three children(2). She married secondly in 1725 John Moore (1673?-1738 qv), a citizen and goldsmith of London, but the marriage was childless(3).

Elizabeth Moore of Lambeth, formerly of London Wall, died on 19 September 1754, at the age of seventy nine(4).

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Aged 79 at death. Her birth is not traced in Northants QM Births Digest
- 2 For marriage and children see HOLMES, Joseph (1675-1722/3)
- 3 For marriage see MOORE, John (1673?-1738)
- 4 London & Middlesex QM Burials Digest: she is described as a widow

N.B. There is no reference to her in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

WBE:

MOORE, Elizabeth nee Walton, 1859-1936

b. 1859 daughter of Edwin and Mary

Clayton Walton.

Active in Fallowfield Meeting where she served for 25 years as Superintendent of the First Day School.

Teacher in public schools of Chester County, Pa.

m. George W. Moore in 1886. 1 son 3 daughters.

They lived at Ercildown, near Coatesville, Pa.

A book of her poems was published under title of Maple Hill and other poems. (1937)

d. Oct. 21, 1936 at Ercildoun in her 77th year.

Frds. Intel., 93(1936):732,777

Frds. Hist. Lib., Sw., Bx7616

MOORE, Emma (1788-1853) after 1810 Bracher

[Emma Moore, daughter of Edward Moore (-) and his wife Joanna (born of Bristol, was married in 1810 to Thomas Bracher (1787-1862 qv) of Wincanton in Somerset.

See BRACHER, Emma (1788-1853) born Moore]

2 X

MOORE, Francis (-1678?)

Francis Moore was a useful London Friend. In a MS in Friends House we read: 'ffrancis Moor of London having a testimony for ye Lord in meetings & a good service in meetings, though he did not much travail abroad...' His residence in the Ratcliff district appears probable from an appointment in 1672 to assist prisoners, but his name is crossed through and marked 'removed'. Other offices in the Church were allotted him (Sundry Ancient Epistles, MS in Friends House). He also had a share in the work of providing spinning for poor Friends; this was shortly before his decease, if the record of the death of Francis Moore, of Love Lane, merchant 3.xii.1678, referred to him.

Suff.

Note by N. Penney in G. Fox, Short Journal, 1925, p.371

WBE:
(prepared by RB)

MOORE, George H.

b. 10 Feb. 1854 near Ashboro, North Carolina, son of Ransom S., and Elizabeth J. Moore.

In childhood removed with parents to Indiana.

ed., Earlham College, 1889

1892-1902, Principal of Vermilion Academy at Vermilion Grove, Ill.

Recognized as a leader of educational affairs in Vermilion County.

m., 1893 Jane D. Hollingsworth (d. May 1922)

1902 Pastor of Friends Mtg., Paoli, Ind.

1912-22, Pres. of Am. Fds. Board of Foreign Missions.

1925, Pastor of Ridge Farm Friends Church.

1910-14 Clerk, Western Y. Mtg.

d. 24 Apr. 1932, aged 78 yrs.

Elliott, Errol T., Qu. on the Am. Frontier, 401
Minutes of Western Y. Mtg. (1932), 134-135.

WBE:

MOORE, Harriet J., nee Stockly, 1797-1855

b. Nov. 6, 1797 in Accomack County, Virginia, daughter of Charles and Ann Stockly.

ed. Southern Boarding School at Smyrna, Del., Friends School, Camden, Del. and 6 months at Westtown in 1818.

Joined Friends.

m. 1819 William W. Moore of Easton, Md. 3 children.

1824 accompanied Margaret Judge in a visit to Virginia, and North and South Carolina.

1829 family removed to Baltimore, Md. and again in 1834 moved to Philadelphia where they became members of Spruce St. Monthly Meeting, Race St. Yearly Meeting.
About 1838 she appeared in the ministry and did some travelling in that cause.

d. July 4, 1855 and was buried at Fairhill, Phila., aged about 58 years.

Frds. Intel., 12(1856):264

Moore, Memoir and letters of Harriet J. Moore

V

MOORE, James

James Moore travelled also in Ireland, in 1657 (Swarth.
MSS.iii. 132). Nothing further respecting him has been found.

Note by N. Penney in Fox's Journal, Camb. ed. 1911 vol.2 p.469

WBE:

J-

MOORE, James, c.1716-1809

b. May 6, 1716 in Ireland, son of Andrew and Margaret (Miller) Moore.

1723 came with his family from Ireland and settled at Sadsbury, Pa. Became a miller with his father.

An elder and a minister.

m. Ann Starr in 1740. (she d. 1761) children.

m. (2d) Mary Atkinson (a widow), d. 1766

m., 1769 (3d), Ann Newlin (a widow), d. 1789

m., 1791 (4th) Ann Williams (a widow), d. 1801

James Moore was a very strong man physically, possessed of an Irish humor. He was very exact in his dealings.

d. August 1, 1809 at the age of 93 years.

Haines, Ancestry of Sharpless Moore, 20

Passmore, Andrew Moore and his descendants, 22 et seq

Comly, Frds. Misc., VI:145

MOORE, John

It cannot at present be determined whether this John Moore was the same as John Moore of Eldroth in the parish of Clapham, N.W. Yorks. (p.135), or whether he can be identified with any other of the same name (see F.P.T.; Swarth. MSS.iv.96).

John Moore of Eldroth is mentioned in Swarth. MSS.i.164

Note by N. Penney in Fox's Journal, Camb. ed. 1911 vol.2 p.386

MOORE, John (1673?-1738)

John Moore, the son of John Moore of Speen in Berkshire, was born about the year 1673(1).

He was a citizen and goldsmith of London(2) and was married in 1725 to Elizabeth Holmes (born Osborne, 1675?-1754 qv) of London(3); the marriage was apparently childless(4).

John Moore of Moorgate, London Wall, died of apoplexy on 24.iv.[August] 1738, at the age of sixty five(5).

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Aged 65 at death. His birth is not traced in Berks & Oxon QM or London & Middlesex QM Births Digests
- 2 He is so described in his marriage entry, note 3
- 3 The wedding was at Peel FMH on 30.x.[December] 1725: he is described as a citizen and goldsmith of London, the son of John Moore, late of Speen in Berkshire; she is described as the widow of Joseph Holmes, late citizen and weaver of London (London & Middlesex QM Marriages Digest)
- 4 No children are traced in London & Middlesex QM Births Digests
- 5 London & Middlesex QM Burials Digest: no description of him is given

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

2+

WBE:

MOORE, John Wilson, 1789-1865

b. Dec. 17, 1789 on the eastern shore of Maryland, son of Robert and Mary (Wilson) Moore.

ed. 1807 studied medicine at Univ. of Penna. from which he graduated in 1812.

m. 1813 Mary Lewis (d.1855) One daughter. They residedon Spruce St., near Third. He himself overcame a tubercular life by fresh air treatment.

1826 appointed by Southern Quarter to be member of Meeting for Sufferings. Did not accept appointment.

1827 at the separation he went with Race St. and helped establish the meeting at 9th and Spruce Sts.

m. (2d) 1856, Rachel Wilson Barker, herself a minister. He accompanied her on several journies.

1857 removed his membership to Green St. Meeting.
Visit to Europe.

1859 established a school for the children of refugee slaves in Lower Canada.

1862-63 Paid a visit to the West Indies. Upon his return he moved to Germantown and kept up his medical work.

d. June 25, 1865 in Germantown and was buried at Fairhill in his 76th year.

Friends Intel., 22 (1865):312

Shotwell, complainant, Foster's report, II:46,47

Memoir in Journal of Rachel Wilson Moore, 253

WBE:

2X

MOORE, Joseph, 1732-1793

b. 1732 and lived near Flemington,

New Jersey, son of Moore.

1748 served as super cargo on a ship voyage.

Convinced and joined Friends.

m., 1751, (d. 1791) Children.

1774 recorded a minister while belonging to Kingwood, Monthly Meeting.

1786 with Abraham Gibbons visited Nova Scotia.

1793 with William Savery and other Friends went to the signing of an Indian Treaty at Detroit.

1793 early fall of the year he attended Yearly Meeting in Philadelphia. It is supposed that there he contracted yellow fever.

d. Oct. 7, 1793 at Flemington, N.J. in his 62d year.

Comly, Frds. Misc., VI:289, 344

1741-1817

Josephine Moore
See Members Penn Society not terribly distinctive but is Charter Member of Wm Acton's Soc for Abolition Soc for women Penn 50 years.

Co. 1, Battalion, P.D.C.
Caudron

Easy

Winston Co., P.D.C., p. 90-91.

Leake, Hargay & Thyell in Dumas, John C.

~~1981~~ May 8, 1981

Alluvium. The presence of little ground俊地 Chili, Human of Philadelphia Society for

WBE:

3

MOORE, Joseph, 1832-1905

b. Feb. 29, 1832 in Canton, Washington County, Indiana, son of John Parker and Martha (Cadwalader) Moore.

ed. Blue River Seminary until 1850 when he took up teaching in a country school.

1853 entered as a student Friends Boarding School, Richmond, Ind. He then served as assistant teacher there.

1859-61 studied at Harvard University in the natural sciences under Louis Agassiz. Received his B.S. degree in 1861.

1861 appointed to chair of Natural Science at Earlham College.

1862, m. Deborah Stanton at Springboro, O.
They had a son and two daughters.

1865 recorded a minister and did some travelling until his health failed and the family moved to Greensboro, N.C. He helped to organize educational efforts there at the close of the war period.

1868 Called to the Presidency of Earlham Coll.

1872, m. (2d) Mary Thorne of Selma, O., a former student of his. They had 3 daughters and one son.

1874 religious and scientific visit to California and Hawaii.

1883 resigned the Presidency of Earlham and took up the Principalship of New Garden Boarding School in

WBE:

MOOR^b, Joseph, 1832-1905

page 2.

3

North Carolina, later Guilford College.

1888 resigned to return to Earlham as professor of geology. He was Curator of the Science Museum on campus also.

Joseph Moore was of medium height, slender build and very alert. For a time he wore a plain Friends Coat.

d. Jul 9, 1905 at Earlham, Ind., age 73 years.

The Earlhamite, 49(1905): 1-7. (portrait)

Quaker biogs. Ser. II:Vol. 4:3

Jones, Later Per. of Qu., 698

Earlham College Bulletin, 1905 Vol. 2 (portrait)

WBE:a

MOORE, Lindley Murray, 1788-1871.

b. 30 May 1788, Nova Scotia,

His parents were Friends.

ed. at Academy at Sandwich, Mass.

Taught at Rahway, N.J., Westchester, N.Y. and various other places.

m.

(children)

1835, attended an anti-slavery convention at Utica, N.Y. and barely escaped the mob which attacked the gathering. Later defended the cause ably.

Active in the Temperance movement also.

Was convinced, studied the Bible.

Elder for 40 years in Rochester Monthly Meeting. Encouraged the faith of many.

1848-50 Principal of Haverford

d. 15 Aug. 1871, Rochester, N.Y., in his 84th year.

Frds. Rev., 25(1871):58.

Christian Worker, 1(1871):160.

Hst. of Haverford 185-188

27

WBE:

MOORE, Mary, nee Wildman, afterwards Atkinson, 1720-1766

b. Oct. 8, 1720 in Bucks County, Penna, daughter of Joseph and Sarah Wildman.

m. Thomas Atkinson of Wrightstown.

Recognized a minister.

m. (2d) James Moore of Sadsbury, Chester County, Pa. (see his biog,) children.

"If you would gather your families more often together, and sit down in his fear, to wait in true silence, to have your minds drawn from this world, you would grow in the Truth".

d. July.13, 1766 at Sadsbury, Pa., aged 45 years.

Passmore, Andrew Moore and his descendants, 28

The Friend (Phila.) :308

Phila. Y.M. A Col. of Mem. (1787), 248

MOORE, Mary (1727-1801)

✓

Mary Moore was born at Waterford on 8 iii[May] 1727, the daughter of Nicholas and Susanna Moore.

She died on 3 June 1801, and was buried in Friends burying ground in Waterford. She was aged about seventy four years, and had been a minister for about forty years.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE :

Testimony of Waterford MM in TCMD vol 4 p.161

WBE:

MOORE, Nicholas -1689

A prominent attorney of London, Eng.

1682, came to America with Wm. Penn. He was granted 10,000 acres near Byberry, Penna. The tract was called Moreland. He was chairman of the first Provincial Assembly, held at Chester, Penna.

Also served as President of the Free Society of Traders. He was in delicate health for many years. His property was much encumbered.

d. 1689 at "Green Spring", Moreland, Pa.

Martindale, Hist. of Byberry and Moreland, 29

WBE:

MOORE, Phebe, afterwards Philips, 1826-1871

see

Philips, Phebe, nee Moore, 1826-1871

WBE:

3

MOORE, Rachel Wilson (Barker)

Lived at Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

A minister among Friends.

1835, published A sermon delivered at ...Cherry St.

m. , 1856, John Wilson Moore (see biog.) and became a member of Spruce St. Monthly Meeting.

1857 certificates removed to Green St. Mo. Mtg.

1858 accompanied her husband in visits to Illinois, Michigan, Upper and Lower Canada and New York.

1863 in consequence of laryngeal disease visited the West Indies.

1867 published Journal of Rachel Wilson Moore... during a tour to the West Indies...and South America...

1860 Special meeting of Meeting for Sufferings (London) denied her the right to speak as a minister, she being a "Hicksite".

Frds. Hist. Lib., Sw., BX7616

MOORE, R.W., Journal of.....during a tour to the West Idies &c.

MOORE, Rebecca (1672-1737) after 1699 Simpson

[Rebecca Moore, daughter of John Moore (-) of Westmorland, was married in 1699 to Isaac Simpson
(1670-1735 qv).]

See SIMPSON, Rebecca (1672-1737) born Moore]

2+

MOORE, Richard (-1668)

Dr Richard Moore was a well-known and valued Friend of Shrewsbury. Joseph Smith states that he had formerly resided at Worle, in Somersetshire (Cata. 1867, ii.183). He accompanied Fox on several missionary journeys. Ellis Hooke says that Dr Moore 'laboured and travailed in the Work of this Ministry, both in England and beyond Sea' (Testimony, prefixed to Moore's Redemption of the Seed of God, written in Barbados, printed in 1677). Moore was taken ill when on a visit to London, and he died there (Swarth. MSS. i. 108).

Mordecai Moore, son of Richard Moore, emigrated, and settled at South River, in Maryland (Norris, John ap John, 1907, p.17).

[Ball], Premonitory Extracts, 1819, p.191
Swarth MSS.i.134

Note by N. Penney in Fox's Journal, 1911 vol.2 p.408

tr

WBE:
Additional references

2 X

MOORE, Richard -1668

Jos. Smith's Cat., 2:183

Frds. Hist. Lib., Sw., BX 7614

WBE:

MOORE, Richard, 1794-1875

b. 1794

A lineal descendant of Thomas Lloyd he lived at Quakertown, Penna.

An elder of Richland Mo. Mtg at Quakertown.

1834 was responsible for the erection of a large stone building in the north part of Bucks County. During the time it was built no spirituous liquors were served to the workmen.

d. April 30, 1875 at Quakertown, Pa., aged 81

Jour. Frds. Hist. Soc., 23:39

Frds. Intel., 32 (1876):186

WBE:

2X

MOORE, Robert, (Dr.)

Lived at Easton, Maryland, but later moved to Philadelphia, Pa.

A doctor, he joined Friends.

m. Esther d.1854 (in her 80th year.)

A minister.

1822 signed a statement as to what were and what were not the expressions of Elias Hicks at Southern Quarterly Meeting.

1827 present a conference at Green St. Meeting in Phila. to decide what should be done in the crisis of Fourth day of Yearly Meeting week in Phila. He went with Race St. Friends afterwards .

Shotwell, complainant, Foster's report, I:366; II:492, 132, 133, 137

Frds. Intel., 11:584

MOORE, Sarah (1690-1761) aftw. Hadwen

[Sarah Moore, daughter of John Moore (-) of Eldroth, Yorkshire and his wife Sarah (nee (-) was married in 1714
to Isaac Hadwen

see HADWEN, Sarah (1690-1761) born Moore]

MOORE, Thomas

Thomas Moore J.P. of Hartswood, near Reigate, Surrey. He is principally noted for his numerous audiences with royalty on behalf of his imprisoned friends. George Whitehead says, 'He had an interest with King Charles and some of his Council more than many others had' (Christian Progress, 1725, pp.350-355; Green, Souvenir of Addresses to the Throne, 1901, pp.23,28,29; Swarth. MSS.i.48,58 103,386, and especially iv.196). He was in prison in Southwark in 1663 (Swarth. MSS.iv.95) and in 1672 (Christian Progress, p.710). The burial registers do not contain his name. The reference in the MS to his convincement and faithful standing was omitted from Ell. edd., as also references to his name in other places (eg. ii.158). Did he forsake the faith? On the other hand, we find this testimony to his worth, written by John Abraham (1687-1771), grandson of Margaret Fell, on one of Moore's letters, 'A Great & Brave man in those Early Days. J.A.' (Mix MSS.z.2).

Cal. S.P. Dom; 1651, 1660-1, 1663-4, and presumably the Thomas Moore mentioned in 1656-7
F.P.T.

Note by N. Penney in Fox's Journal, Camb. ed. 1911 vol.1 p.435

WBE:

MOORE, Thomas, 1760-1822

b. 1760 at Waterford, Loudon County, Va., son of Thomas and Moore.

Became a cabinetmaker.

m. Mary Brook and removed to Sandy Spring, Maryland.

1803 made the first refrigerator for use in carrying butter to market. Later he made larger models.

A model farmer and also an expert in various kinds of construction work.

He was employed to construct a causeway from Mason's Island to the Virginia shore; also was chief engineer of the James River canal.

d. Oct. 3, 1822 of a fever at Sandy Spring, Md.,
aged about 62 years.

Jour. Frds. Hist. Soc., 19:53

Friends Intel. 69:485

WBE:

2*

MOORE, William, fl. 1660-1683

"A scottish Friend" according to Braithwaite. Some evidence exists which places him in Gloucestershire, Eng.

A minister who could speak Dutch as well as Latin.

1662 In company with John Philly travelled in Austria and Hungary. They were seized at Comora (?) and maltreated by the Inquisition. Finally released.

1664 published Newes out of the East, &c

1662 During the above mentioned imprisonment they were befriended by Adam Bien, who acted as barbar to the ~~Early~~ (apparently) Lord Francis of Nadasii.

1683 Imprisoned in England for absence from national worship.

Besse, 2:420,432

Jos. Smith's Cat., 2:183

Braithwaite, Sec. Per. of Qu., 216

Hirst, Qu. in Peace and War, 452

Friends Lib., IV:469

Friends Journal, 2 (1956):771

WBE: a
(prepared by RB)

3

MOORE, William I., 1862-1912

b. 25 Oct. 1862, son of Benjamin and Hannah Moore.

Worked on farm during boyhood.

Recorded as Friends pastor.; served 50 years in the ministry in Grey, Toronto, Pickering and Swarthmore, Can. Mtgs.

m., 1888 Martha Bond. 4 children.

1897 with Alma G. Dale visited scattered Friends in the West (Can.); 5 new mtgs. established as a result.

Member of Y. Mtg. Home Mission Com.

1899-1905 Clerk, Can. Y. Mtg. (Orthodox)

1902 started a Friends' Colony near Battleford, Saskatchewan, named Swarthmore.

d. 7 Mar. 1912

Dorland, Arthur, History of the Soc. of Friends in Can., 271.

Elliott, Errol T., Qu. on the Am. Frontier, 390.

Minutes of Can. Y. Mtg. (1901-14), 28-30

MOORHOUSE, Henry (1843-1870)

Henry Moorhouse, the second son of Samuel Moorhouse (1808?-1875 qv) and his wife Jane, born Mason, of Leeds, was born there on 17 March 1843(1). He had a kind and unassuming disposition, but although a faithful member of the Society he was hesitant in giving expression to his religious feelings.

Although his health was not robust, he had never been seriously ill until at the age of twenty seven he had an attack of fever and died after a brief illness on 21 July 1870(2).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Annual Monitor 1871, pp 78-80

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: his father is described as a warehouseman
- 2 Digest of Deaths: he is described as the son of Samuel and Jane

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MOORHOUSE, James (1841-1887)

James Moorhouse, the eldest son of Samuel Moorhouse (1808-1875 qv) and his wife Jane, born Mason, of Leeds, was born there on 15 January 1841(1). He became a corn miller, like his father(2) and was married in 1867 to Hannah Binns of Halifax(3); there were four children(4).

He suffered for many years from a spinal complaint and had been obliged to give up an active life. The progress of the disease was very slow, but he bore his affliction with patient submission and resignation.

James Moorhouse of Leeds died on 25 January 1887, at the age of forty six(5).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Annual Monitor 1888, pp 86-87

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: his father is described as a warehouseman
- 2 He is so described in his marriage entry, note 3
- 3 The wedding was at Halifax on 1 May 1867: he is described as a corn miller of 64 Camp Road, Leeds, the son of Samuel Moorhouse, a corn miller; she is described as a spinster of 6 Aked Road, Halifax, the daughter of David Binns, a retired linen draper (Digest of Marriages)
- 4 Listed in the Digests of Births and Marriages as follows:-

*Edward	b 22 Feb 1868
Alfred	b 31 March 1870
	who m 1900 Elizabeth Henderson
*Walter Henry	b 13 Jan 1873
Mabel Jane	b 29 May 1878
	who m 1901 John Thompson Faraday, N.M.
- *No marriages traced in the Digest of Marriages to 1925
- 5 Digest of Deaths: he is described as a corn miller

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MEG Nov 1977

MOORHOUSE, Samuel (1808?-1875)

Samuel Moorhouse, the son of Joshua Moorhouse, was born about the year 1808(1). His parents were in humble circumstances and were not connected with the Society of Friends. He received a bare minimum of ordinary schooling, but he attended a Wesleyan Sunday School, to which he felt he owed much and subscribed to annually in his later years. With the additional aid of evening classes and lectures his quick and retentive mind enabled him to overcome many of the deficiencies of his lack of formal education.

He began light work at the age of seven, prompted by the desire to help his mother in providing for her numerous family. He was employed as a marker at two billiard rooms in Leeds and sometimes received presents of money, which he took home and delighted in presenting to his mother, who regarded them as a God-send, often not knowing where tomorrow's dinner was coming from. He had a lively turn of mind, with some skill as a ventriloquist and especially as a musician, and narrowly escaped being drawn into circus life. There was also talk of his joining a military band and going to the Colonies.

This was the pattern of his life until he reached the age of about fourteen, when he entered the service of some Friends in Leeds who were stuff merchants and he continued in this employment for thirty two years; later on he became a corn miller. The influence of these Friends, although not what finally drew him into the Society, was very favourable to his spiritual development and led him to seek many and varied kinds of religious experience. He read the life of George Fox and became deeply absorbed in it; his mind had been undergoing a change fitted to receive the principles and doctrines there set forth and in his endeavours to adopt a new way of life he gave up many of his cherished amusements, including music. He first attended a meeting of the Society when he was nineteen and finding there the fellowship he longed for he was admitted into membership when he was twenty six. He was married in 1837 to Jane Mason (2) and there were eight children(3).

Although he deprecated the observance of mere forms he was a plain Friend in language and dress and earnestly holding to the early principles of the Society he often felt called upon to oppose a spirit which he regarded as mere change and restlessness. He was an ardent supporter of meetings for worship, both on Sundays and on week days and greatly prized these periods of spiritual refreshment.

Samuel Moorhouse died at 12 Moorland Road, Leeds(4) on 23 September 1875, at the age of sixty seven(5).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Annual Monitor 1876, pp 122-129

continued

MOORHOUSE, Samuel (1808?-1875)

continued

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Aged 67 at death
- 2 The wedding was at Leeds on 15 November 1837: he is described as a bachelor, a warehouseman of Leeds, the son of Joshua Moorhouse, a cloth dresser; she is described as a spinster of Swinegate, Leeds, the daughter of John Mason, a hatter (Digest of Marriages)
- 3 Listed in the Digests of Births and Marriages as follows:-

*Ellen	b 16 Nov 1838
James qv	b 15 Jan 1841	who m 1867 Hannah Binns
*Henry qv	b 17 March 1843
*Samuel	b 16 Oct 1845
*George	b 25 Aug 1848
*Anna	b 22 Aug 1850
*Mary	b 2 Aug 1853
*Benjamin	b 10 June 1855
- *No marriages traced in the Digest of Marriages to 1903
- 4 The Friend vol 15 (1875) p 280: notice of death
- 5 Digest of Deaths: he is described as a corn miller

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MEG Nov 1977
replacement

WBE:

MOORHOUSE, Samuel, c.1808-1875

b. c.1808

Owed much to a "Weslyan Sunday School".

During his boyhood he was employed as a "marker" at two billiard rooms in Leeds, England. Had skills as a ventriloquist and especially as a musician.

Entered the employ of some Quakers in Leeds who were stuff merchants. Worked there 32 years.

m., 1837, Jane Mason.

Read The Life of George Fox and was soon absorbed in it. Relinquished gradually his cherished accomplishments, including music. His first attendance at Friends meeting had taken place about 1827.

c. 1833 he joined Friends and took upon himself Friends' minor, as well as major testimonies, though depreciating the observance of mere forms.

d. Sept. 23, 1875 at Leeds, Eng., aged 67 years.

The Friend (London), 15(1875):280

An. Mon. (N.S.), 34(1876):122

WBE:a

MOORMAN, Richmond, 1817-1900.

b. 12 Sept. 1817, Richmond Co., N.C., s. of Tarlton and Hannah Way Moorman. Birthright member of Society. In 1822, they moved to Winchester, Randolph Co., Indiana where they were pioneers.

Converted in early manhood.

m. Mary Morris, dau. of Jehoshaphat and Sarah Hill Morris of Dublin, Indiana, 1839. Their marriage lasted nearly 55 years.

Withdrew from the Society because of the slavery question, loudly voicing his opinions (anti-slavery.) After settlement of the slavery question he rejoined Friends.

He helped Negroes by developing their self-respect and by educating them. He worked for the amelioration of both public and private schools. He sought to free people from not only ignorance, but also prejudice.

A faithful attender of meeting.

d. 12 Oct. 1900, Indiana?, age 83.

American Friend '(1901):13.

WBE:

MORDEN, Ralph, 1742-1780

b. 1742 in England, fourth son of George and Morden.

c.1750 the family emigrated to Philadelphia, Pa. Settled in Mt. Bethel Township, Northampton County, Penna.

m., 1765 Ann Durham of New Jersey, a Quaker. It is thought that possibly through his wife's interest Morden became a Friend. They had 8 children.

In May of 1780 he assisted a known British Tory to escape from the area back into the hands of friendly Indians who saw that he got to Canada. Morden was arrested for assisting in this flight.

Oct. 30, 1780 he was arraigned in Easton for trial before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, charged with treason. He was convicted and sentenced to be hung.

d. Nov. 25, 1780 at Easton, Penna., by hanging.

Bul. Frds. Hist. Assn., 45:59

Pa. Mag. of Hist. and Biog., 79(1955):439

MORETON, Frank Edward (1892 - 1974)

Frank E. Moreton was born on August 8, 1892 in Birmingham of a non conformist family. He was educated at Aston Grammar School and at Birmingham University from which he graduated with a B.A. degree in 1914.

In 1914 he was appointed assistant master at Friends School, Great Ayton, and he applied for membership of the Society of Friends in about 1915.(1) He registered as a conscientious objector in 1916 and joined the Friends War Victims Relief Committee in 1916 until 1919. In 1920 he married Agnes Rutter at Wincanton.(2) He was appointed head of Friends School, at Wanganui, New Zealand. There he made a great impression on the progress of education in New Zealand, he worked tirelessly to try to help the integration of the Maoris and the white population and persuaded the Ministry of Education to provide a system of education that the Maoris could accept.

He returned to England in 1929 and in 1931 was acting head of Newtown School, Waterford. From 1932 - 1935 he was head of Welwyn Garden City High School and then head of Billingshurst Council School until his retirement.(3) He was always a keen student. He gained further degrees, M.A. at Birmingham University, a diploma in French at Rennes University, and his Ph.D. at London University in 1929. He was a great lover of music, himself a pianist and 'cellist, a lover of amateur dramatics and an ardent letter writer. He was a specialist in psychological testing. He was also a strong socialist, an active member of the P.P.U. and of the F.O.R. and was devoted to the Society of Friends.

His wife Agnes died of cancer in 1950, in 1952 he married once more, Noreen Mary King, but she also died of cancer in 1958. He suffered greatly from these two deaths.

On his retirement he moved in 1959 to Stoke Trister, near Wincanton, where he joined the local meeting to which he gave all the support he could. He had served as clerk to Dorking, Horsham & Guildford MM for five years prior to removal to Wincanton and in 1961 he took up the clerkship of Shaftesbury & Sherborne MM, a service he was to render until December 1972. He was also for a time clerk to the PM at Wincanton.(4) He was meticulous in his duties as clerk, always willing to accept that he might have been mistaken, a searcher after truth and his death was a great loss to his local meeting. He also served on Friends Service Council from 1944/5 to 1951/2, again from 1953 - 1960 and possibly also from 1961/2.(5)

In his service to the community he was instrumental in establishing the Wincanton Council of Churches which he was still serving as secretary at the time of his death. He also took an active part in local government and was a loved and respected member of the community.

He died on June 19, 1974 at the age of 81.

continued. -

MORETON, Frank Edward (1892 - 1974) continued.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Testimony of Shaftesbury & Sherborne MM.
Y.M.Proc. 1975 pp 183/4.

REFERENCES AND NOTES

1. Durham QM printed lists of members record him as attending Gt. Ayton in 1915 and as a member of the Meeting in 1916.
2. Marriage Digest The marriage took place at Wincanton FMH on April 22, 1920. He is described as bachelor, schoolmaster of Loughborough, son of Frederick Albert Moreton, engineer, she as Agnes Mary Rutter, spinster of Wincanton, daughter of Clarence Edward Rutter, solicitor. She was also a Friend.
3. Sussex, Surrey & Hants QM printed lists of members record him as a member of Thakeham Meeting in 1938.
4. London Yearly Meeting Book of Meetings for 1973 records his service as clerk to Wincanton PM. This service seems to have continued until his death.
5. Typescript Committee Index - Friends House Library.

WBE:

MOREY, Dewance, c.1644-1684

b. c.1644

Published A True and Faithful Warning from the Lord God, &c

1656 While going to Hawkschurch was barbarously whipped.

d. June 19, 1684 aged 40 years.

Besse, I:166

Jos. Smith's Cat., 2:184

WBE:a

MOREY, Elizabeth, afterwards Morgan, 1910-1971.

see MORGAN, Elizabeth, nee Morey, 1910-1971.

WBE:

MOREY, Sarah, afterwards, Underwood, later Hunt, 1797-1889

see HUNT, Sarah, nee Morey, afterwards Underwood

MORFORD, Thomas (-1694)

Thomas Morford was of Englishbatch, near Bath, Som. Convinced by John Audland at Bristol in 1654. 'A man of excitable temperament', 'a Friend of ill-regulated enthusiasm' (B.Q., 386 398). Later, when 'one of the principal Quakers of his time, in the City' of Norwich (Eddington, Q.N., 162), he 'Lost his Condition' (F.P.T., 228, as Murford) through immorality (for details, cf. Eddington, loc. cit). d. 1694, cf. Smith, Cat.

Note by G.F. Nuttall in Early quaker letters, 1952, p.67

WBE:
Additional reference

MURFORD (or Murford), Thomas -1693/4

Besse, I:499,500,515

WBE: o
(prepared by RB)

MORGAN, Abigail C., 1830-1912

b. Jul. 1830 on a farm in Guilford Co., North Carolina, near Deep River Mtg., dau. of Samuel and May Moore.

ed., New Garden Boarding Sch. (now Guilford College)

m., Aug. 1851, John B. Morgan. (d. 1879)

Lived on a farm near Deep River, North Carolina.

Removed to Lost Creek, Tenn.

Removed to N. E. Kansas with outbreak of Civil War; endured the hardships of pioneer days.

1870, home was burned.

Last charter member of Fruitland Mo. Mtg. (Kansas) which was set up ca. 1882.

A faithful pioneer Fd.

d. 25 Feb. 1912 near Fruitland, Kansas, aged 82 yrs.

Am. Fd., 19(1912), 189, 190

MORGAN, Annie (1869-1959) born Mantle

This remarkable woman and Friend was born on 20 February 1869, and was a stimulus to all who met her. She joined the Society in Radnorshire about the time of her marriage to William Morgan in 1896. In 1907 Anne Morgan with her husband and three children came to East Harling, where they threw themselves into the life and work of the Tivetshall Monthly Meeting, and quickly endeared themselves to those around them. Endowed with gifts of no mean order and a born leader Annie Morgan was also a great lover of children, which her earlier life as a teacher had fostered and under her capable supervision the Sunday School flourished. Her knowledge of the e Scriptures was profound. She was Clerk to Monthly Meeting for twenty-six years and faithful in the discharge of her duties as an Elder and Clerk to both Monthly and Quarterly Meeting Ministry and Oversight Committees. She was deeply concerned in the work of FFMA and later FSC and in earlier years knew personally many missionaries. She supported her husband in his pacifist principles in the first world war.

s Moving to Tasburgh in 1923, she was Chairman to the Managers of the local school, and her help was widely sought as a speaker at women's meetings. She was also agent for The Retreat.

b In 1949 Tivetshall MM made a presentation to the Morgans as an expression of gratitude for forty years of affectionate care. Earlier that year they both celebrated their eightieth birthdays.

Annie Morgan died on 28 October 1959 aged 90 years.

Principal source

Testimony of Tivetshall MM in YM Proc. 1960, p.125

WBE:

d. 1711

MORGAN, Cadwalader

b. in Merionethshire, Wales.

Emigrated to Penna. and settled at Merion, Pa.

| A minister.

m. Jane Price children

He contemplated buying some slaves but it was revealed to him that he should not be concerned therein.

1696 he made a protest to Phila. Yearly Meeting against slavery.

He advised keeping the mind stayed upon God.

d. 1711

and was buried at Merion, Pa.

Bul. Frds. Hist. Assn, 23, No.2:96

Drake, Qu. and slavery in America, 19,20,68

John Smith's Ms.2:503

Browning, Welsh Settlements, pp. 105-107

MORGAN, Cadwalader

add: died 1711

m. Jane Price

ref: T.A.Glenn: Merion in the Welsh Tract, 1896, pp.87-88

9/86

WBE:a

2X

MORGAN, David, 1822-1892.

b. 18 July 1822, New Market, Jefferson Co., Tenn.,
s. of William H. and Catherine Morgan.

1842-43, attended New Garden Boarding School, N.C.

Took an active part in North Carolina Yearly Meeting, a supporter of Friends' Schools.

m., 1846, Lucinda Lee. (children)

Laid out the town of Friendsville, Tenn., Soon after his marriage and began to preach against slavery. When the Civil War broke out he was warned to leave the state, and did so, losing all his property.

1848, recommended a minister.

Founded Friendsville Institute in Eastern Tennessee, afterwards called Friendsville Academy.

1860, became principal of Friends' Iowa Boarding School later called Spring Creek Institute, until it burned, 1862.

Known for his remarkable sermons.

Paralysis.

d. 13 Dec, 1892, New Sharon, Iowa, aged 70 years.

Christian Worker, 23(1893):44.

Hinshaw Ency., vol. I:1145, 1110, 1160.

MORGAN, Elizabeth

Elizabeth Morgan was the wife of Edward Morgan, of Chester, and with him 'first received friends... In Chestr' (F.P.T., 16, n.1). 'bred dissension in Bristol meeting in 1655 by her unwise conduct and exalted spirit'. In 1656 in prison in Dublin (cf. A.R.B. MSS., 65). cf. Hutchins, C.B.R.; B.Q., 388, with n. 10.

Note by G.F. Nuttall in Early quaker letters, 1952, p.67

WBE:a

MORGAN, Elizabeth, nee Morey, 1910-1971.

b. 17 Feb. 1910, dau. Arthur Giles and Harriett (Eastman) Morey.

ed. graduate, Aurora Conservatory of Music; B.S., Miami University.

m. 23 June 1931, Ernest Morgan (s. Arthur G. Morgan);
two sons, two daughters (one since deceased).

A founder of Yellow Springs (Ohio) Meeting; Clerk of Celo (N.C.) Meeting at her death.

1940, ran for congressman-at-large in Ohio, as Socialist.

1941-1949, with her husband, co-publisher of Yellow Springs News. Served as its editor for brief time in 1941-1942.

1962-1967, assisted in struggle of Seneca Indians to save lands from flooding by the building of Kinzua Dam.

Described as "always ready for any battle in the fight for racial equality", she was first white student to attend Wilberforce University in Ohio. Once shot at for her support of Keionia Community (Ga.) when it came under attack for its interracial nature.

Founder, Arthur Morgan School (named for her father-in law) in Celo, N.C. Partner in Camp Celo; started work camp.

WBE:a

MORGAN, Elizabeth, nee Morey, 1910-1971, page 2.

An accomplished musician, she was also a leader in the Socialist Party and the labor movement. Her interest in elementary education grew out of her own childhood experience of "finding things out by myself."

d. 26 Sept. 1971, in Celo, N.C., aged 61 years.

Veron M. Redfern

Correspondence with Ernest Morgan, March 1973.

Friends Journal, 17(1971):655.

WBE:a

2X

MORGAN, Ephraim, 1790-1873.

b. 18 May 1790, Brimfield, Hamden Co., Mass., s. of

His father was a soldier in the American Revolution.

ed. public schools and private with Reverend Clark Brown, Mr. Walker, and finally Mr. Edward A. Flannegan. During his education, 1803, they moved to Cincinnati.

70 years a printer, from apprentice to proprietor.

Head of the old Liberty Hall which started the Daily Gazette in Cincinnati. In 1813 when he became a partner in the paper there were only 125 subscribers. But eventually it became a success, and also the only daily paper issued west of Philadelphia. 1829, he retired from the Gazette because his conscience was repelled by the paper's advertisements for runaway slaves. He became instead, a book publisher.

m. dau. of Dr. Christopher Anthony, a Quaker. (children.)

1823, joined Friends. Became a minister.

An honest, kind, well-loved man.

d. ca. 1873, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The Christian Worker, 3(1873):164.

WBE:

MORGAN, Joseph, c.1796-1863

b. c.1796 and lived in Hereford, England.

1854 wrote Capital Punishment inconsistent with the doctrine of the Gospel, &c.

d. Aug. 15, 1863 at Hereford, aged 67 years.

An. Mon. (N.S.) 22(1864):55

Jos. Smith's Cat., 2:185

WBE:

MORGAN, Mary, afterwards Pennell, 1678-1764

see

PENNELL, Mary, nee Morgan, 1678-1764

WBE:

MORGAN, Naomi, afterwards Harrison, later Jay, 1838-1922.

see JAY, Naomi, nee Morgan, afterwards Harrison, later Jay.

MORGAN, Nathaniel (1775-1854)

Nathaniel Morgan was a banker, living at Ross-on-Wye, in Herefordshire.

Jnl.Friends Hist.Soc: 15.

Note by Norman Penney: Pen Pictures 1930, p.138

WBE:
Additional information

MORGAN, Nathaniel, c.1775-1854

b. c.1775

1824, wrote Letter on the formation of a Peace Society at Ross, Eng.

A strict Quaker who was also Mayor of Ross, in Herefordshire. He was interested in pacifism, anti-slavery and other reforms.

d. Oct. 31, 1854 at Ross, Eng., aged 79 years.

An. Mon. (N.S.), 14(1856):154

Bul. Frds. Hist. Assn., 48(1954):124

Jos. Smith's Cat., 2:185

The Friend (London), 12 (1854):229

Historical Journal, Univ. of Birmingham, 4 (1953):30-46

MORGAN, William (1869-1956) 2*

William Morgan was born 28 February 1869 in Radnorshire, and was a pupil at Yardley Warner's Friends School at Pales.

As a young man he offered for service with the Friends Foreign Mission Association, but ill-health interfered with acceptance, and instead he undertook full-time work for The Friends Home Mission Committee. He worked in Shildon and West Hartlepool, in Durham Quarterly Meeting, and transferred to Norfolk in 1907, living first in East Harling and after 1923 in Tasburgh.

He and his wife Annie worked strenuously in building and keeping up the various Meetings for Worship and Mission Meetings in the locality. William Morgan was recorded as a Minister; he was both an Elder and an Overseer, and acted as Clerk to the Month Meeting Trustees.

He served the locality as a magistrate.

He died 27 August 1956

Testimony of Tivetshall M.M. in Y.M.Proc.1957, p.177.

WBE:

MORGAN, William Butler, 1830-1904

b. Dec. 2, 1830 near Raysville, Indiana, son of Charles and Michael Butler.

ed. 1847-49 Friends Boarding School, later Earlham College, Richmond, Ind.

1857 received A.B., A.M. degrees from Haverford College and then went on in Univ. of Mich. where he received a degree in Civil Engineering in 1863.

dates?
1853-55 teacher of classics at Westtown School, Pa.

m., 1855, Sarah Henley

1855-60 Professor of Latin and Greek at Earlham College. Changed to teaching mathematics, 1863-64, 1865-68

1864-65 Instructor in Engineering at University of ¹⁸⁶⁵ Michigan. Published "The Macgraph", Journ. of Franklin Inst.

1868-74 teacher in schools of Indianapolis and at Spiceland Academy in Indiana.

1874-75 Prof. of Math and Engineering at Purdue

1875-76 Prof. of Chemistry and Governor at Earlham.

1876-82 Prof. of Math at Wm. Penn College in Iowa.

Served as President there ~~1887-88~~, 1876-79, (J.B.)

1883-1898 Professor of Mathematics at Earlham.

d. Feb. 24, 1904 age 73 years.

Elliot, Errol T., Quakers On The American Frontier, p. 388.

Westtown School, Catalogue, 354

Westtown School, The Westtonian, 3:139

Haverford College, Mat. Cat., 56

Frs. Boarding School (later Earlham), 50th Ann., 41 (portrait)

MORIARTY, Denis Redmond (1908 - 1965) V

Denis Moriarty was born in the year 1908 (1) in South Africa, his parents were not members of the Society of Friends. He was the youngest of six children and was educated in England, in the west country, he entered banking as a career and in the Bristol area he became interested in Friends, possibly through contact with Paul Sturge and joined the Society in about 1928.(2)

During the war he gave up his career in banking and began looking for opportunities for service to the community. Earlier he had moved from the Bristol area into the Home Counties and at Purley in 1937 he married Johanna Edwards, who was always known as 'Joan'.(3) He and Joan went first to Killeaton House in N. Ireland, a hostel for the Friends Relief Service to serve as wardens and after two years they returned to England and Denis became in 1946 travelling officer for the National Federation of Community Associations for the S.West area of England, being attached to the National Council of Social Service. Three years later he was appointed deputy secretary of the Federation, working from London.(4) It was a post in which he made a great contribution to the development of community Associations throughout the country. His wit and liveliness and real interest in people, coupled with his clear, incisive mind, skill in public relations and his deep sense of purpose quickly enabled him to establish firm contacts with all kinds of developing groups who were badly in need of the good advice he could give. (5) It was this quality of character which stood him in good stead in his next post, when in about 1954 he undertook a new and exciting assignment in Kenya for the Friends Service Council and prepared the way for a community centre at Ofafa, a new neighbourhood of Nairobi and then became its first warden. He left it as an established centre and then back in England left the National Council of Social Service and the work of the Federation to become Europe Secretary of Friends Service Council. During the next five years his work in Europe, his success in fund raising, and his irrepressible enthusiasm left their mark. He visited Rome, representing Friends Service Council at a conference of Nobel Prizewinners and was warmly received by Pope John on his hearing that Denis was a Quaker. In 1960 he took up the task of Home Organisation Secretary, and despite increasing periods of illness gave all he could to this service, visiting Algeria in 1963 and Africa again in 1964.

He was devoted to the service of the Society of Friends, as an elder, as clerk to Monthly Meeting (6) as member of central committees (7) and as member of the management committee of the Swarthmore Home, of which he was later chairman. In his locality he was involved in the local Marriage Guidance Council and spent himself in service for others.

He died suddenly at his home at Petts Wood, Orpington on April 12, 1965, aged 56.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend Vol. 123 (1965) pp. 461/2, 517.

continued.

MORIARTY, Denis Redmond (1908 - 1965) continued.

2

REFERENCES & NOTES

1. The Typescript Committee Index - Friends Ho. Library gives his date of birth as 1908.
2. Bristol & Somerset QM printed list of members for 1929 records him as a member of Redland Meeting.
3. Marriage Digest. The marriage took place at Purley FMH. on September 18, 1937. He is described as a bank official of Barnes, she as Johanna Olive Edwards, spinster of Clapham Common.
4. They settled in Petts Wood. London & Middlesex QM printed list of members for 1950 records them at Petts Wood, which meeting continued to have their support.
5. Personal knowledge. SGJ. SGJ worked with him on the national executive committee of the National Federation of Community Associations for several years.
6. Index of Clerks - Friends Ho. Library.
Clerk of Redland Meeting 1949
Clerk of Croydon & Southwark MM. 1953 - 1957
7. Typescript Committee Index - Friends Ho. Library.
Home Service Committee
Agenda Committee 1955/56
Marriage & Parenthood Committee. 1938/9, 1942/3, and 1949/50 - 1957.

SGJ. JAN.'80

MORICE, Walter (1838-1908)

See also WISE

3

Walter Morice, born at Manchester in 1838, was the son of Alexander and Hannah Morice.

Under the tuition of Charles Cumber his taste for literary and scientific work was encouraged; later he was at Ackworth, and for a year under the influence of Isaac Brown at the Flounders Institute. He then taught for seven years.

When about eighteen years of age he passed through a period of mental conflict but his faith helped to resolve this.

Walter Morice was married in 1863 to Louisa W. Whitehead (1). In 1868 he first spoke in ministry, simply repeating the passage from John iv. 24

In 1873 he spent a year in Canada on account of his health, his wife accompanying him. His interest in Canadian Friends became so great that on his return home he applied for a certificate from his Monthly Meeting (Hardshaw East). After recording him as a minister the certificate was granted. During this second visit he and Stanley Pumphrey were the means of drawing together the members of our Society in Toronto, and the Meeting then formed has continued and increased.

In 1881 Walter Morice was liberated by Yearly Meeting for service in Norway and Denmark, and to the close of his life it was to these two countries he devoted so much of his time and energies.

He was a member of the Continental Committee of the Meeting for Sufferings, and had a large correspondence with Friends in Syria, Constantinople, Tasmania and other parts of the world, as well as Norway and Denmark.

Walter Morice translated several tracts etc. into Danish and, with the help of other Friends, distributed a large amount of religious and peace literature. His accurate knowledge of Danish opened a door, not only to Friends, but to Lutherans, Baptists and Methodists.

In 1895, while in Hammerfest, he had a serious illness which necessitated his entering the hospital there. Here he received much kindness from the doctor and his wife. Later, in 1908, when liberated by Yearly Meeting held in Birmingham, he visited these friends at a small town near Stavanger, a few days before the close of his life. On 9 July, previous to leaving Stavanger, Walter Morice invited Friends and attenders to a tea and social time. A young Friend alluding to this gathering, writes "his last visit was very helpful to Friends, and he seemed to know that he should not come again and therefore most earnestly pressed upon us what he considered most needful for the Church of Christ amongst us."

On the night of July 10 he stayed with his companion in the house of a Friend at Aamot, and proceeded to Roisland in Kvinesdale the next day.

cont.

MORICE, Walter (1838-1908) continued

3

In the evening the people of this place met in the Meeting House for a quiet time of Bible Reading and prayer. Afterwards Walter Morice retired to his room, which was shared by his companion, and whilst engaged in silent prayer he made a slight noise; his friend assisted him on to the bed; one sigh escaped his lips, and his spirit had returned to its Maker.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE :

Testimony of Northampton & Wellingborough MM in YM Proc. 1909 p.260

REFERENCES & NOTES :

- 1 The marriage does not appear in Digest of Marriage Registers

SEE ALSO :

- The Friend ns vol 48 (1908) pp.476, 514
Annual monitor 1909 p.90
Ackworth old scholars assoc. rep. 1908

WBE: a (prepared by RB)

gX

MORLAN, Charles P. 1872 - 1964

Member and recorded minister of Upper Springfield Mtg.
(Ohio Y. Mtg.)

m. Sarah

4 children.

1937-48, Clerk Ohio Y. Mtg. (Conservative)

d. 30 June 1964, Salem, Ohio, aged 92 yrs.

Elliott, Errol T., Qu. on the Am. Frontier, 397

Friends Journal, 10(1964), 367

MORLAND, Alfred (1872-1957)

Alfred Morland, the son of Charles Coleby Morland (1839-1908 qv) and his wife Jane (born Fryer, 1843-1923 qv) of Croydon in Surrey, was born there on 4 October 1872(1). He was educated at Bootham School, York, from 1886 to 1889(2) and on leaving school he qualified as a chartered accountant.

He lived at the Old Schoolhouse, Blatchington, Seaford in Sussex and although not so well known as other members of his family, he had the same unconventional and individual outlook on life. His manner of expressing himself made him stimulating, if somewhat startling, company.

After many years as a confirmed bachelor he married Miriam Ethel Crawshaw, then librarian at Friends House(3). The marriage was childless(4), but the home they made at Seaford was particularly happy and hospitable and was a house to which children were always welcome. They were devoted supporters of Lewes Meeting and Alfred Morland was a trustee of the Bedford Institute.

He died at Eastbourne on 3 September 1957, at the age of eighty four(5).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend, vol 115 (1957) p 844

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: his father is described as an umbrella manufacturer
- 2 Bootham School Register 1935, p 273
- 3 The wedding was at Jordans on 11 September 1926: he is described as a bachelor, a chartered accountant of Old School House, East Blatchington, the son of Charles Coleby Morland, an umbrella manufacturer; she is described as a spinster, a librarian of Green View, Jordans, the daughter of Philip Crawshaw, a draper (Digest of Marriages)
- 4 No children are traced in the Digest of Births
- 5 His death is not traced in the Digest of Deaths

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MORLAND, Amy Constance (1869-1949)

Amy Morland, the eldest of the three daughters of John Morland (1837-1934 qv) and his wife Mary, born Clark, of Croydon in Surrey and Glastonbury in Somerset, was born in Croydon on 16 June 1869(1). When the shoe and sheepskin rug sections of the business of Cyrus and James Clark at Street in Somerset were separated, John Morland joined his father-in-law James Clark (1811-1906 qv) and brother-in-law William S. Clark (1839-1925 qv) in the sheepskin rug business under the style of Clark, Son & Morland and the family moved to Berthover, Glastonbury, where the rug making business had been transferred.

Amy Morland was at The Mount School, York, from 1885 to 1886, but details of her earlier education are not at present(1976) traced(2). Ill health prevented her from going early into the business, but when she did so she made her presence felt. "Order & obedience were equally foreign to her nature;" wrote one who knew her; "it never entered her head to do what she was told, even by the r doubtable 'Mr John' if she herself hadn't any light on the matter." She became forewoman of the factory and her department always seemed to be in complete chaos, but by sheer force of character and a remarkable memory she produced astonishing results.

She was for many years a member of the Board of Guardians, was active on the Victoria Nursing Association and other bodies and was also a member of the Public Assistance Committee(3). On her retirement she was made a Justice of the Peace for the county of Somerset and faithfully discharged this office until increasing blindness forced her to relinquish it. She was a shrewd judge of character and although she liked to have her own way, she enjoyed a struggle. The one thing she could not tolerate was lack of spirit.

She died at the Wirral, Glastonbury, on 24 December 1949, at the age of eighty(4).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend vol 108 (1950) p 12

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: her father is described as a tea dealer
- 2 A Register of Old Scholars of The Mount School, York, 1931-1932, p 28
- 3 Ibid
- 4 Digest of Deaths: she is described as a spinster, a retired Foremistress of a factory

N.B. There is no reference to her in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MEG Nov 1976

MORLAND, Arnold Jowitt (1878-1951)

Arnold Jowitt Morland, the son of Charles Coleby Morland (1839-1908 qv) and his wife Jane (born Fryer, 1843-1923 qv) of Croydon in Surrey, was born there on 13 January 1878(1). He was educated at Bootham School, York, from 1892 to 1893 and in 1903 was married to Florence Regina Basterd; there were five children(2).

He was for ten years estate manager to the Montserrat Company Ltd in the British West Indies, followed by fifteen years as proprietor of a nursery garden near London. Prior to his retirement he had been responsible for a set of flats built by Grace and Phillips. He died at Croydon on 2 April 1951, at the age of seventy three(3).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Bootham School Register 1935, p 273

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: his father is described as an umbrella manufacturer
- 2 Listed in Bootham School Register, 1935; they are not traced in the Digest of Births:-

Arnold Hugh	b 1904
Florence Joy	b 1910
Betty	b 1911
Roger	b 1914
Jane Fryer	b 1917
- 3 Digest of Deaths: he is described as of Lanog Cottage, Duppas Road, Croydon, retired

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MORLAND, Charles Coleby (1839-1908)

Charles Coleby Morland was a member of Kingston Monthly Meeting for nearly all his life. He was Clerk and Treasurer for a considerable time and took a full share in the lesser duties.

As an Elder he warmly supported gatherings for Bible Study welcoming the help in this direction given by Summer Schools.

His interest in Education was shown through his long connection with the school at Croydon, later at Saffron Walden and in other ways.

He was a valued member of the Meeting for Sufferings and the Home Mission Committee. He was a member of the Peace Society and for many years acted as its Chairman.

His faithful citizenship in Croydon, where he worked in municipal affairs, was a Poor-law Guardian and a Magistrate has been greatly appreciated.

His experience and knowledge, quiet solid judgment, coupled with a tolerant and expansive view of differences in religious thought were highly valued. His life illustrates what is meant by a consistent life of Christian service.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Testimony of Kingston MM in YM Proc. 1909 p.264

OTHER PRINCIPAL SOURCES TO BE EXAMINED

The Friend 1908 p.645
British Friend 1908 p.202
Annual monitor 1909 p.93
Bootham school register

SEE ALSO

Obituary : Croydon chronicle 12.ix.1908 (vol. MM/28)
Friendly messenger 1908 p.130
Trustee of Yoakley's charity 1885 (Box 155)

WBE:
Additional information

MORLAND, Charles Coleby, 1839-1908

b. 1839 in London England, son of John and Hannah Morland.

v. 1841 the family removed to Croydon, Eng.

ed. at York (Bootham) and at University College, London.

m. 1862 , Jane Fryer. 14 children.

Engaged in his father's umbrella business of which he shortly became head. Stayed in the work until 1895 when he retired.

Always active in public affairs, as magistrate, justice of the peace and eventually in 1903 as Mayor of Croydon. He was also deeply devoted to the affairs of the Society of Friends and was an Overseer and an Elder, as well as participating in Meeting for Sufferings.

d. Sept. 7, 1908 in a nursing home in London, aged 69 years.

An. Mon. (N.S.), 96(1909):93

Additional information

MORLAND, Charles Coleby (1839-1908)

Charles Coleby Morland was married in 1862 to Jane Fryer (1843-1923 qv) of Halifax(1); there were fourteen children(2).

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 The wedding was at Brighouse on 22 October 1862: he is described as a bachelor, an umbrella manufacturer of Heath Lodge, Croydon, the son of John Morland, an umbrella manufacturer; she is described as a spinster of Foothill Bastrick near Halifax, the daughter of Charles Fryer, a fancy woollen manufacturer (Digest of Marriages)
- 2 Listed in the Digests of Births, Marriages and Deaths, with additional information from Bootham Register 1935, as follows:-

Lucy Fryer	b 12 June 1864	who d 1945
Charles Ernest	b 9 Nov 1865	who d 1912
Janet qv	b 24 May 1867	who m 1896 William Charles Braithwaite (1862-1922 qv)
Harold John qv	b 28 July 1869	who m 1895 Mary Adelaide Robson
Philip qv	b 5 Dec 1870	who m 1899 Lillian E Roberts (Bootham Register p 276)
Alfred qv	b 4 Oct 1872	who m 1926 Miriam Ethel Crawshaw
Egbert Coleby qv	b 3 Sept 1874	who m 1903 Mary Windsor Latchmore (Bootham Register p 274)
Helen	b 14 Feb 1876	no marriage traced to 1939
Arnold Jowitt qv	b 13 Jan 1876	who m 1903 Florence Regina Bastard (Bootham Register p 273)
Caleb	b 10 April 1880	who d 1893
Geoffrey qv	b 20 Nov 1881	who m 1911 Linda Watts (Bootham Register p 274)
Margaret Sarah	b 1 Jan 1884	who m 1906 Augustine Reeve Grace
Hannah Grace	b 4 July 1885	no marriage traced to 1939
David Fryer qv	b 14 Nov 1886	who m 1924 Marion F. Cushing (Bootham Register p 274)

SEE ALSO:- Incidental references in J Friends Hist Soc vol 14, p 155:
vol 27, p 15: vol 39, p 55a:

MORLAND, Christopher Chant (1900-1958)

Christopher Chant Morland, the elder son of James Clark Morland (1867-1947 qv) and his wife Lucy, born Brookbank, of Street in Somerset, was born there on 24 May 1900(1). He was educated at Sidcot School from 1912 to 1918, where he played in the 1st XI Soccer and cricket teams and was swimming champion in 1917(2). He took a B.Sc degree in engineering at Manchester University, after a period of service with the Friends Ambulance Unit. On leaving Manchester he joined the family business of Clark, Son & Morland in 1922, being promoted to the Board as works engineer in 1929.

He was married in 1927 at Canford Cliffs in Dorset to Pauline Lillies Gilmer(3) and there were three children(4).

In 1934 he transferred to the manufacturing side of the business, a new arrangement which worked out very well; he had all the practical turn of mind and the training which the job required. On the death of his uncle John Coleby Morland (1865-1940 qv) he became Deputy Chairman and was left in charge of the business for rather more than a year. Outside contacts had never been easy for him, but during this period, when he was forced to make them, he handled them extremely well, an experience which stood him in good stead when he eventually became managing director.

Between 1945 and 1955 he rebuilt the business of 'Morlands' warm lined boots and he also opened a factory at Highbridge. He was made joint managing director in 1955 and once more the new arrangement worked out very well for him, the more surprisingly as he was by then fifty five and had recently undergone two hip operations. He had the reputation of being a hard worker, but without much lift to his work, but his new position revealed an unexpected capacity to reach beyond the daily round.

He died at Street on 23 June 1958, at the age of fifty eight(5).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend, vol 116 (1958) p 915

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

continued

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: his father is described as a rug manufacturer
- 2 Sidcot Register 1808-1958, p 145
- 3 Ibid: there is no record of the marriage in the Digest of Marriages
- 4 Listed in the Digests of Births and Marriages as follows:-

Lilias Jean	b 14 Dec 1928	who m 1953 Bernard Matthew
Mary	b 28 April 1930	Emile Cremier-Alcay N.M.
James Patrick		who m 1958 David Barnes N.M.
Gilmer	b 17 March 1933	no marriage traced to 1969
- 5 Digest of Deaths: he is described as of Ashcott, Somerset, a sheepskin shoemaker

MORLAND, David Fryer (1886-1944)

David Fryer Morland, the son of Charles Coleby Morland (1839-1908 qv) and his wife Jane (born Fryer, 1843-1923 qv) of Croydon, was born there on 14 November 1886(1). He was educated at Bootham School, York, from 1879 to 1882 and was married in 1924 to Marion F.Cushing; there was one child(2).

He was a chartered accountant and gained his A.C.A. in 1909. He and his family went to America, where he lived at 29 Mountain Avenue, Larchmont, N.Y.; he died in 1944(3).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Bootham School Register 1935, pp 271-272

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: his father is described as an umbrella manufacturer
- 2 Bootham School Register 1935 lists as follows:
 Hasel Mary
The birth is not recorded in the Digest of Births
- 3 Bootham School Register 1971. His death is not traced in the Digest of Deaths

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MORLAND, Elizabeth Jane (1869-1945) born Bracher

Elizabeth Jane Bracher, the daughter of William Bracher (fl. 1869-1876 qv) and his wife Mary (born Herridge,), was born at Wincanton in Somerset on 9 October 1869(1).

1852

MORLAND, Egbert Coleby (1874-1955)

continued

Egbert Coleby Morland, the son of Charles Coleby Morland (1839-1906 qv) and his wife Jane (born Fryer, 1843-1923 qv) of Croydon in Surrey, was born there on 3 September 1874(1). He was educated at Bootham School, York, from 1889 to 1891 and married in 1903 Mary Windsor Latchmore (1873-1948 qv); there were three adopted children(2). He died, Colchester, Yorkshire, on 26 April 1955, at the age of eighty.

He studied at Dalton Hall from 1891 to 1893, taking a B.Sc (Hons) London degree in 1893. He went on to St Bartholemew's Hospital in London to study medicine and gained his M.B. with a gold medal and exhibition in physiology in 1898. But after a brilliant career as a medical student he developed tuberculosis and was sent to Berne in Switzerland, in which country he lived for over ten years. He was devotedly nursed by his wife and in 1907 became an M.D. with the Swiss Federal Diploma. He became resident physician at Arosa in Switzerland from 1907 to 1915, practising as a specialist in tuberculosis.

1. B.I. The outbreak of the first world war dissipated his practice and after a period of relief work on the Marne he returned to England, where he accepted a post on the editorial staff of The Lancet. He was also chairman of the Medical Board of the Friends Service Council. The post on The Lancet proved a great success, providing a congenial field both for his interest in all social and medical developments and his love of writing. He was appointed editor in 1937.

2. B.I. As editor of The Lancet (retired) he is described as editor of The Lancet (retired).
3. B.I. Egbert of Denton, he is described as editor of The Lancet (retired).
He and his wife and family lived for many years in London and Egbert and Mary gave much time and thought to fostering Friends House Meeting. His service to Friends was, however, somewhat hampered by the enigmatical quality of his character, which endeared him to those who knew him well; it was often difficult to be sure whether what he said was intended in jest or in earnest and this sometimes led to misunderstandings and frustration. He was happiest with the group of Quaker doctors and medical students to whom he became a father figure, and on Sibford School Committee, where he was well known. He was one of the school's staunchest supporters, especially during a period in the late twenties, when a large building programme had to be undertaken. He produced 'Sibford', the first film of school life, in 1928 and also originated the Jordans Bulletin, a pastoral magazine, in 1926.

He was an able and gifted man, the most stimulating of hosts, companions and correspondents and in this last capacity continued to

continued

BBC Dec 1976

NORLAND, Geoffrey (1881-1965)

continued

Geoffrey Morland, the eleventh of the fourteen children of Charles Coleby Morland (1839-1908 qv) and his wife Jane (born Fryer, 1843-1923 qv) of Croydon in Surrey, was born there on 20 November 1881(1). He was educated at Bootham School, York, from 1895 to 1898 and after leaving school he was articled to Edward Newton, then a leading architect; he gained his A.R.I.B.A. in 1906(2). Soon after completing his articles he won the third prize in an open competition for the design of the King Edward the Seventh Sanatorium for Consumptives.

He was married in 1911 to Linda Watts of Liverpool(3), but there were no children of the marriage(4). After a period of farming near Huddersfield he became manager of the Chadwick Manor estates of Edward Cadbury, in the Lickey Hills near Birmingham. During the first world war he served long prison sentences as a conscientious objector and meanwhile his wife collected the estate rents and carried on in his stead.

In 1922 he began to practise as an architect in Kendal, where he had great success in designing houses of local stone which blended harmoniously with the surrounding landscape and he was also very skilful at adapting older houses. He was a talented musician and set to music a number of poems by Robert Louis Stevenson, John Masefield and some of the Georgian poets; he was also a very good accompanist on the piano. He believed profoundly in the ideals of the simple life and food, furniture and house decorations were plain but good; he dressed usually in brown or greenish tweeds.

He was a lover of the countryside round Kendal, above all of the Howgills and other bare hill-sides at Sedbergh. A sensitive and meditative man, he was a charming companion and had in him a happy flow of fun ready to be tapped. Tall, upright and sparely built, his health was good until 1957, when he had a heart attack; he bore his last eight years of illness and increasing weakness with great patience. He was a valued member of Kendal Meeting and was very much a Quaker in his approach to life; he had a quiet influence on all who knew him and was one singularly unspotted by the world.

He died at Kendal on 7 October 1965(5), at the age of eighty three.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend vol 123 (1965) p 1335

Aug 1976

continued

MORLAND, Hannah (1798-1888) born Coleby

Hannah Coleby, the daughter of Charles Coleby (1769-1802 qv) and his wife Elizabeth, born Kincey, of Hempstead in Norfolk, was born there on 30 October 1798(1). Her father died when she was about four years old and her mother's friends came to the rescue of the family, left in poor circumstances, by setting them up in a little school in a large old house at Kelvedon in Essex.

Her mother was married again in April 1807 to Thomas Broadbent (1752-1808 qv), but the marriage only lasted for about a year before her stepfather died, and seems to have made little impact on the household. She and her sisters were good looking girls who attracted many suitors and in 1832 Hannah became the second wife of John Morland (1794-1867 qv) of London and later of Croydon; there were five children(2).

Hannah Morland died at Croydon on 16 July 1888 at the age of eighty nine(3), having been a widow for about twenty one years.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Desmond Chapman-Huston, Sir James Reckitt, London 1927, p 53

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Norfolk & Norwich QN Births Digest: her father's occupation is not given
- 2 For marriage and children see MORLAND, John (1794-1867)
- 3 Digest of Deaths: she is described as of Heath Lodge, Croydon, the widow of John N.B. There is no reference to her in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

2

MORLAND, Harold John (1869-1939)

Harold J. Morland was born on July 28 1869, the fourth of fourteen children of Charles Coleby and Jane Morland of Croydon. He was educated at Whitgift Grammar School, Bootham and Flounders Institute. At Kings College, Cambridge, in 1894 he was successful in the Mathematical Tripos and gained his London M.A. For a short while he served on the staff of Leighton Park School but became convinced he had no vocation for teaching. With his wife Mary Adelaide Robson of Saffron Walden, whom he married in 1895, he went to London to start afresh as an articled clerk to a firm of chartered accountants. His colleagues in the firm of Price, Waterhouse & Co. valued him highly, not only as a brilliant accountant but for his fine sense of justice and unswerving devotion to principle. During a long trial in 1931 in connection with his profession which closed with his complete vindication he showed high courage and almost gay serenity.

For the first two years in London Harold and Ada Morland lived frugally in a top storey flat in an artisans' block, then they moved to Croydon where they lived for the rest of their lives. In Croydon Harold Morland took a notable part as Alderman, Magistrate and serving on many committees. He was specially interested in the case of children and young people, mothers and infants.

His particular Quaker concern was in the field of education through Friends Schools and Woodbrooke. Yet he served the Society in many ways such as Chaplain to C.O's, visitor to new and struggling meetings, Clerk to his Quarterly Meeting. It is as Clerk to Yearly Meeting that he was known to most Friends. From 1928-1933 he served with conspicuous directness and clarity, his pronouncements authoritative and at times unconventionally peremptory. He was a generous contributor to all Friends work, and gave his professional services to many causes for social betterment.

He endeared himself to young and old by his genial sympathy and ready responsive laughter. His ministry lacked the conventional phrase but was given with great simplicity and deep feeling, stressing the Fatherhood of God as the most immediate and self-evident reality.

He died on 9 October 1939

WBE:

Additional information

MORLAND, Harold John, 1869-1939

2 A

Served usefully on the British and Foreign Bible Society and was chairman of Friends' Provident and Century Life offices.

The Friend (London), 90 (1932):443,482; 91 (1933):373;
68(1928):523 (portrait); 97(1939):849 (portraitt)

The Wayfarer, 18:280

MORLAND, James Clark (1867-1947)

James C. Morland, the third son of John Morland (1837-1934 qv) and his wife Mary (born Clark, 1842-1926 qv) of Croydon in Surrey and later of Northover, Glastonbury in Somerset, was born at Croydon on 16 August 1867(1). When the shoe and sheepskin rug sections of the business of Cyrus and James Clark of Street in Somerset separated, John Morland joined his father-in-law James Clark (1811-1906 qv) and his brother-in-law William S. Clark (1839-1925 qv) in the sheepskin rug business under the style of Clark, Son & Morland and the family moved to Northover, where the rug making business had been transferred.

James C. Morland was educated at Sidcot School from 1879 to 1881(2) and on leaving school he entered the family rug making business. But he was interested in farming all his life and had a good deal of peasant wit, caution and shrewdness. He was well known in Somerset for his work on the County Council, especially in connection with the Farm Institute.

He was married in 1898 to Lucy Brockbank, a farmer's daughter(3), and there were two children(4). He was always very active in working for the Society, served for a long time as an overseer and did much welcome visiting of isolated Friends. He was a faithful attender at meetings for worship and found great strength in prayer.

He lived at Myrral, The Roman Way, Glastonbury, and died on 11 June 1947(5), in his eightieth year.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend, vol 105 (1947) p 520

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: his father is described as a tea dealer
- 2 Sidcot Register 1808-1958, p 145
- 3 The wedding was at Altonby on 4 May 1898: he is described as a bachelor, a skin rug manufacturer of Glastonbury, the son of John Morland, a skin rug manufacturer; she is described as a spinster of Crosby, the daughter of Richard E. Brockbank, a yeoman (Digest of Marriages)

continued

MORLAND, James Clark (1867-1947)

continued

REFERENCES AND NOTES cont.

4 Listed in the Digest of Births as follows:-

Christopher Choat qv b 24 May 1900 who m 1927 Pauline

Lilius Gilman

(Sidcot Register

1898-1958, p 145

Thomas Brockbank b 18 April 1906 who m 1936 Dorrit Lund et Oslo

(Sidcot Register

1898-1958, p 146)

5 Digest of Deaths: he is described as a retired wool sheepskin tanner

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MEG Dec 1976

MORLAND, Jane (1836-1923) after 1859 Kemp

(Jane Morland, daughter of John Morland (1794-1867 qv) and his second wife Hannah (born Coleby, 1798-1888 qv) of London, was married in 1859 to Caleb Rickman Kemp (1836-1908 qv).

See KEMP, Jane (1836-1923) born Morland)

MEG Nov 1976

J

MORLAND, Jane (1843-1923) born Fryer

Jane Morland was born 12 January 1843. She married in 1862 Charles Coleby Morland, second son of John and Hannah (Coleby) Morland (*). Of her fourteen children (+), the third, Janet, married William Charles Braithwaite. Jane Morland moved to Banbury to live with this daughter and son-in-law, a few years before her death.

After a rich, active life finding expression in public service and ministry, she became an invalid and her last years were spent in a wheel-chair. She was mother and grand-mother, not only to her own family, but to many others in need of love and understanding.

She is remembered for 'the right word ... given at the right time in the right way'.

She died 4 April 1923.

Testimony of Banbury MM in YM Proc. 1923, p.291

References and notes

* Digest of marriage registers 1837-1903

+ Lucy Fryer (1864-1945); Charles Ernest (1865-1912);
Janet (1867- 1936) m. W.C.Braithwaite; Harold John (1869-1939); Philip (1870-); Alfred (1872-); Egbert Coleby (1874-1955); Helen (1876-); Arnold Jowitt (1878-); Caleb (1880-1893); Geoffrey (1881-); Margaret Sarah (1884-)
m. A.N.Grace; Hannah Grace (1885-); David Fryer (1886-).
Information from Digest of birth notes 1837-1960; Digest of burial notes 1837-1961

MORLAND, Janet (1867-1936) aftw. Braithwaite

[Janet Morland, daughter of Charles Morland and his wife Jane (nee ~~Fryer~~) was married in 1896 to William Charles Braithwaite]

see BRAITHWAITE, Janet (1867-1936) born Morland]

MORLAND, Janet (1867-1936) after Braithwaite

Janet Morland, daughter of Charles Coleby and Jane Morland, married William Charles Braithwaite in .

see BRAITHWAITE, Janet (Morland) (1867-1936) born Morland

MORLAND, John (1794-1867)

John Morland, the son of Thomas Morland and his wife Elizabeth, born Pryor, of Newington in Surrey, was born there on 19 December 1794(1). He was educated by Isaac Payne at Epping and subsequently placed as an apprentice with Ruthers and Pryors of Holborn Hill. At the conclusion of his apprenticeship he went into business on his own account as a wholesale and retail umbrella maker in the Minories, later moving to larger premises in Eastcheap.

He was twice married. His first wife was Eliza Chalk, whom he married in 1821(2) and there were four children(3). Eliza died in 1826(4) and in 1832 he took as his second wife Hannah Coleby (1798-1888 qv), the daughter of Charles Coleby (1769-1802 qv) of Hempstead in Norfolk(5); there were five children of this second marriage(6).

The family moved to Croydon in 1844 and both in Devonshire House and Kingston Monthly Meetings John Morland served as an overseer. During the latter part of his life he was made an elder and answered the many calls upon his time with unvarying patience and a fervent desire to do the Lord's work. He took an especial interest in Croydon School and served on the committee for a number of years, giving ever ready support and encouragement to the Superintendent during several difficult periods. His charitable interests were wide and were not confined to the Society; while he lived in London the Spitalfields Soup Society claimed his support and at Croydon he took a warm interest in the British School. He was a member of the first Board of Health formed in Croydon, but perhaps the Peace Society claimed a larger part of his time than any other object.

Without pretence or assumption of any kind, towards his friends he was a genial and cheerful companion and one who could be relied upon in time of trouble. His sound constitution and regular habits preserved his bodily and mental faculties unimpaired almost to the end of his life and although a period of weakness and pain preceded his death, he died at peace on 21 October 1867(7), in his seventy third year.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

Biographical Catalogue, London 1888, pp 447-449

SEE ALSO:--

Annual Monitor 1869, p 101: 2 line entry for death

continued

WBE:

MORLAND, John, 1794-1867

b. Dec. 19, 1794 at Newington, Surrey, Eng., son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Pryor) Morland.

ed. under Isaac Payne at Epping.

apprenticed on Holborn Hill, London.

m. Eliza Chalk (d.1826)

1832, m. (2d) Hannah Coleby of Ipswich. Children.

1860 wrote On simplicity in First Day School teaching. Was an Elder and was active in Peace Society.

d. Oct. 21, 1867 and was buried at Croydon, in his 73rd year.

Sn. Mon. (N.S.), 27 (1869):101

Jos. Smtih's Cat., 2:185

Biog. Cat., 447

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 London & Middlesex QM Births Digest: his father is described as a carpenter
- 2 The wedding was at Red Cross Street, Southwark, on 19 June 1821: he is described as an umbrella manufacturer of the Minories in the city of London; she is described as the daughter of James and Ann Chalk of Great Surrey Street in the county of Surrey (London & Middlesex QM Marriages Digest)
- 3 Listed in London & Middlesex QM Births and Burials Digests as follows:-

Thomas	b 5 June 1822
Ellen	b 5 April 1824	who d 8 September 1825
John	b 3 Aug 1825	who d 1829
Eliza	b	who d aged 12 days 12 Dec 1826
- 4 London & Middlesex QM Burials Digest: she died 7 December 1826
- 5 The wedding was at Ipswich on 26 July 1832: he is described as an umbrella manufacturer of the Minories in the city of London; she is described as the daughter of the late Charles Coleby and his wife Elizabeth, now Broadbank (Suffolk QM Marriages Digest)

N.B. Elizabeth Coleby, born Kinsey, married Thomas Broadbank (1752-1808 qv)
- 6 Listed in London & Middlesex QM Births Digest and the Digests of Marriages and Deaths as follows:-

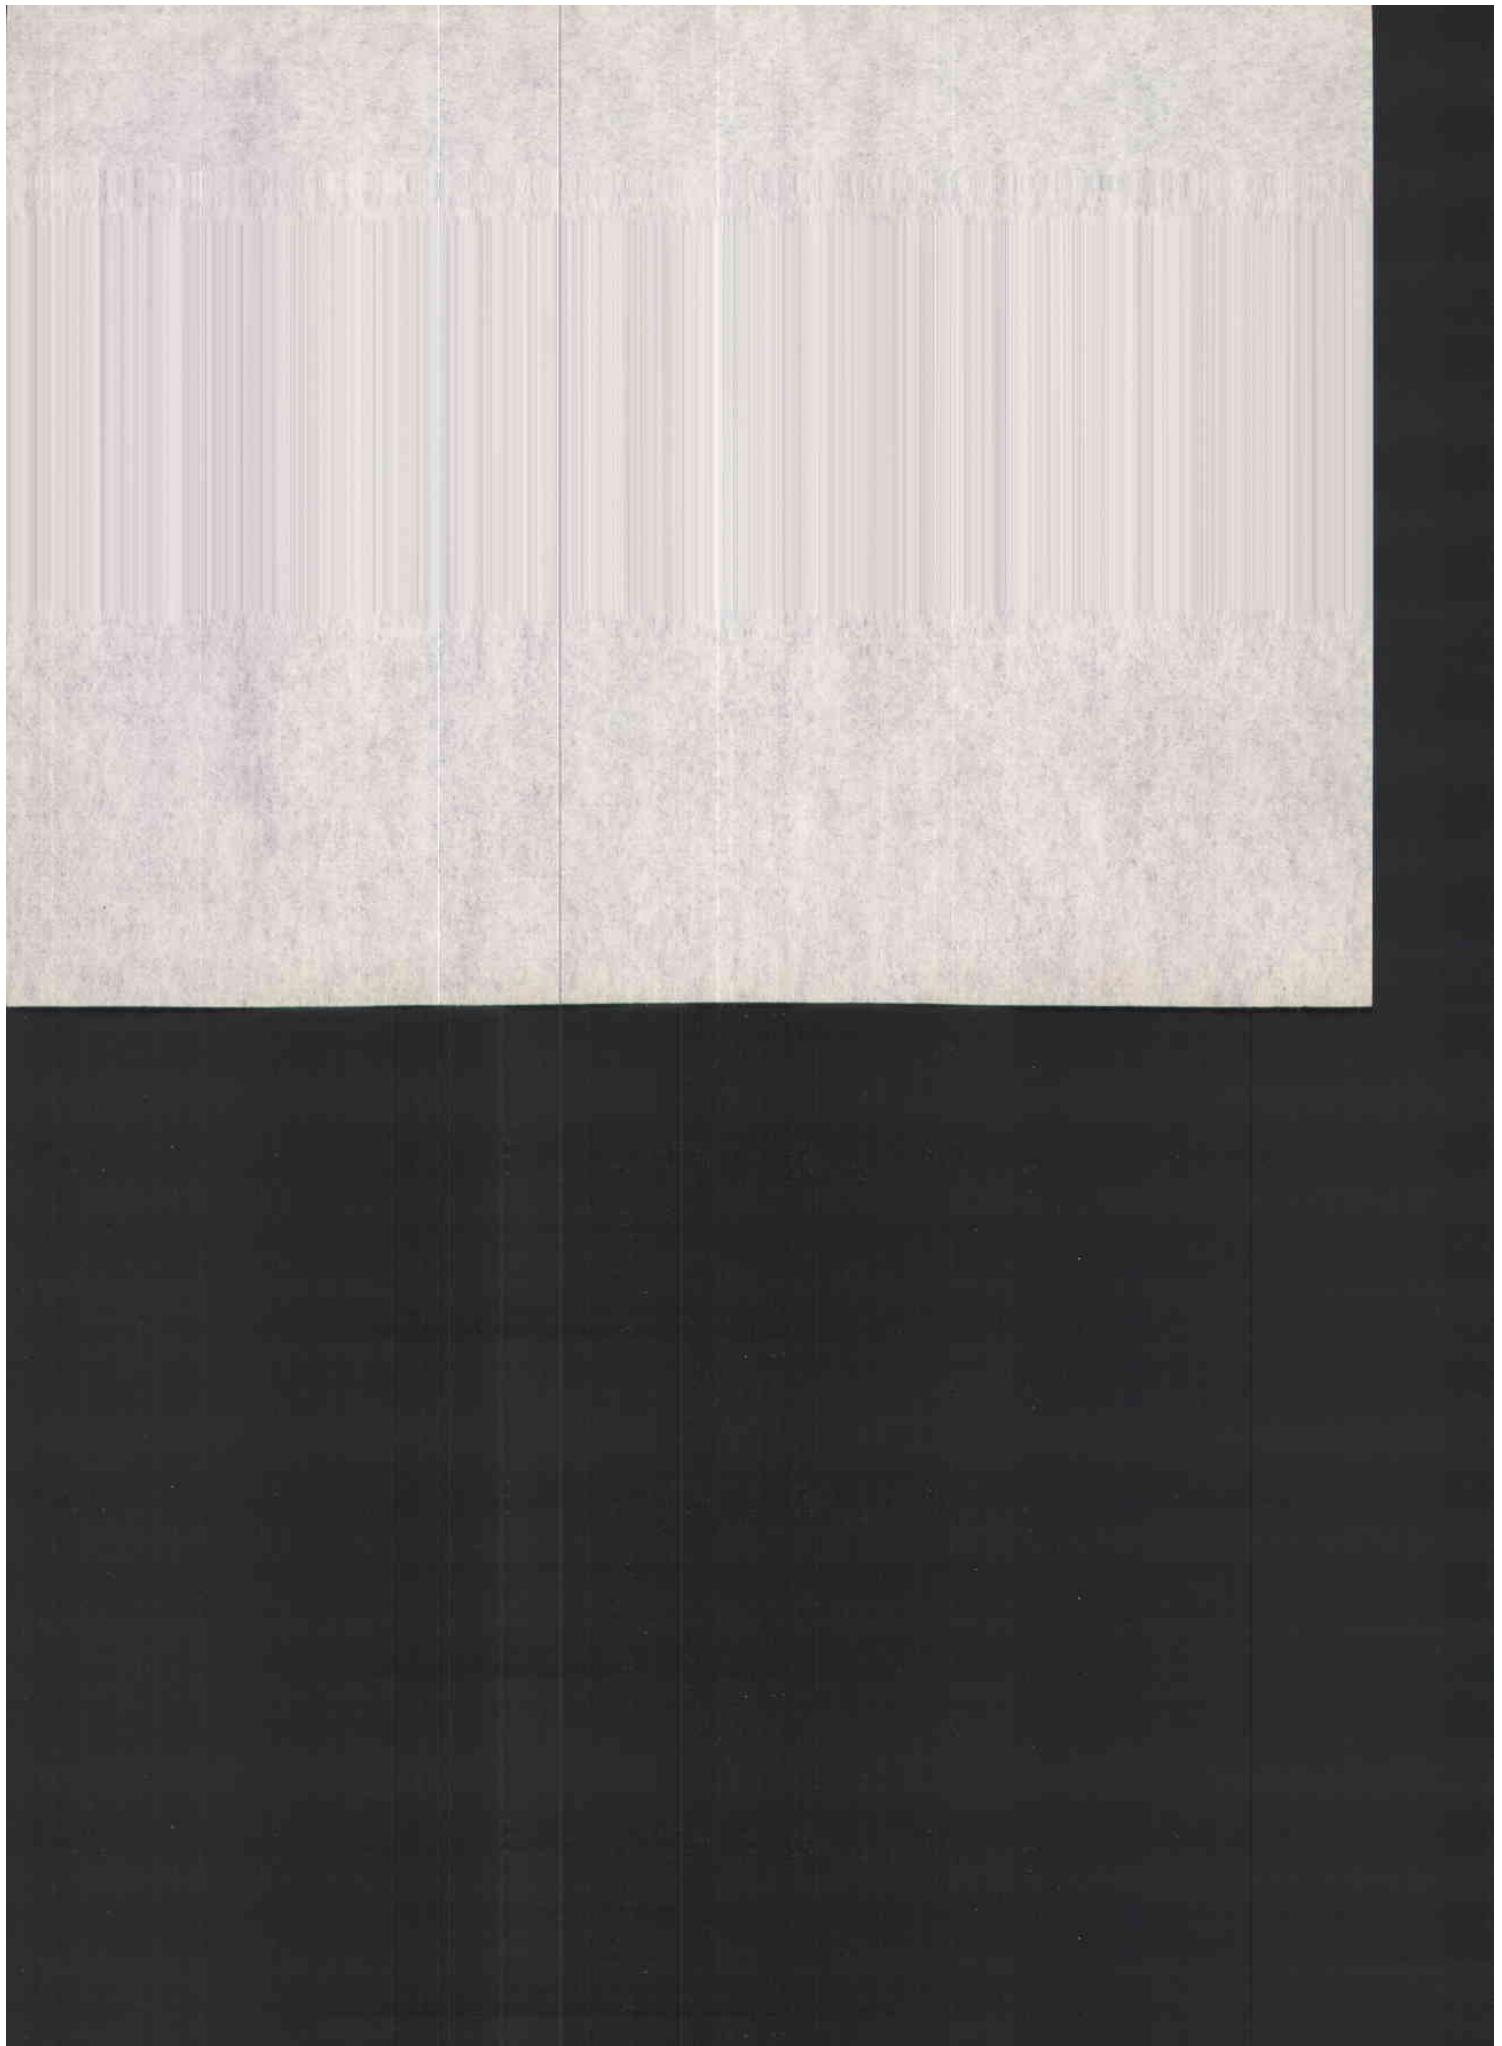

Lucy	b 5 May 1833
Jane	b 17 March 1836	who m Caleb Rickman Kemp (1836-1908 qv)
John qv	b 2 Oct 1837	who m 1863 Mary Clark
Charles Coleby qv	b 10 May 1839	who m 1862 Jane Fryer
Frederick	b 19 Sept 1841	who d 1856
- 7 Digest of Deaths: he is described as a gentleman of Croydon

PUBLICATIONS

On simplicity in First Day School teaching - 1860

Jos. Smith's Catalogue, vol 2, p 185

MEG Nov 1976
replacement

MORLAND, John (1837-1934)

John Morland, son of John and Hannah (nee Coleby) Morland, was born in Aldgate, London October 2 1837. After leaving Bootham he entered the Royal College of Mines (later called the Imperial College of Science and Technology) gaining 1st Class Honours in many subjects and receiving the Duke of Cornwall's exhibition. By his exact and scholarly research he became recognised as an authority on antiquarian history in the County of Somerset.

He married Mary Clark of Street in 1863 and in 1870 he removed from Croydon to Glastonbury to take over management of the sheep rug factory of Cyrus and James Clark. He was a Councillor, Alderman and four times Mayor.

In his own Meeting at Street his presence conferred a benediction and his attendance at Yearly Meeting was increasingly prized. In a few trenchant sentences he often cut through a problem or restated confused issues. He was Clerk of Yearly Meeting from 1899 to 1903.

The freshness of youth, the sagacity of middle life remained to be blended with the wisdom and gentleness of age, with an ever deepening consciousness of divine companionship.

He died 31 July 1934.

Testimony of Mid Somerset M.M. in Y.M. Proc. 1935, p. 237

WBE:
Additional references

MORLAND, John, 1837-1934

The Wayfarer, 13:157

John Morland of Glastonbury (portrait)

The Friend (London), 44 (1904):378 (portrait; 68(1928):533 portrait; 90 (1932):448 (port.); 92(1934):733,782 (port.)

MORLAND, John Coleby (1865-1940)

John Coleby Morland, the son of John Morland (1837-1934 qv) and his wife Mary (born Clark, 1842-1926 qv) of Croydon in Surrey and later of Glastonbury in Somerset, was born at Croydon on 4 September 1865(1). When the shoe and sheepskin rug sections of the business of Cyrus and James Clark at Street in Somerset were separated, John Morland came to join his father-in-law James Clark (1811-1906 qv) and brother-in-law William S. Clark (1839-1925 qv) in the sheepskin rug business under the style of Clark, Son & Morland and the family moved to Northover, Glastonbury, to which place the rug making business had been transferred.

John Coleby Morland was educated at Sidcot School from 1876 to 1878 and at Bootham School from 1878 to 1882(2). All his life he had a skill and fondness for outdoor games and played football for Somerset County from 1885 to 1892(3). He was married in 1895 to Elizabeth Bracher(4) and there were five children(5).

His politics were Liberal and he contested East Somerset as a 'Liberal Labour' candidate in 1918. He served on Glastonbury Town Council from 1901 to 1907, in which year he was made mayor, and on Somerset County Council from 1904 to 1913; he was made an alderman in 1913(6). He served on the boards of many companies, either as chairman or director(7). He was five times Mayor of Glastonbury, but perhaps his chief contribution to civic life lay in his interest in the administration of education and it was largely through his wisdom and judgment as a negotiator that the grouping of Somerset villages in connection with senior schools was carried through without friction.

He was a regular attender at Street Meeting and although he was conservative in his outlook he brought to its corporate worship a fine steady devotion. His chief work for the Society was done in connection with Sidcot School; for nearly fifty years he was almost constantly a member of the Committee of Management and for five years its chairman.

He died at Glastonbury on 25 June 1940, at the age of seventy-four(8).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend vol 48 (1940) p 403

continued

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: his father is described as a tea dealer
- 2 Sidcot Register 1808-1958, p 145
- 3 Ibid
- 4 The wedding was at Wincanton on 31 July 1895: he is described as a bachelor, a skin rug manufacturer of Northover, Glastonbury, the son of John Morland, a skin rug manufacturer; she is described as a spinster of Wincanton, the daughter of William Bracher, deceased (Digest of Marriages)
- 5 Listed in the Digests of Births and Marriages as follows:-

Andrew John qv	b 14 May 1896	who m (1) 1920 Alison Nicol Macbeth
		(2) 1928 Dorothy Saunders (Sidcot School Register)
Mary Elizabeth qv	b 15 Nov 1898	who m 1921 Henry Folliott Scott Stokes
Stephen Coleby qv	b 26 July 1902	who m (1) Hilda Mary Street (2) 1934 Margaret Elisabeth Valk
Humphrey qv	b 17 Jan 1904	who m Gladys
Oliver Bryan qv	b 2 Feb 1908	who m 1929 Undine Ethne Parsons
- 6 Sidcot School Register 1808-1958, p 145: The Friend gives alderman in 1922
- 7 Ibid
- 8 Digest of Deaths: he is described as a sheepskin rug manufacturer

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MORLAND, Lucy (1833-1922)

Lucy Morland, the elder daughter of John Morland (1794-1867 qv) and his second wife Hannah (born Coleby, 1798-1888 qv) of London, was born there on 5 May 1833(1). She was a familiar figure at London Yearly Meeting(2) and served on the Home Service Committee from 1894 to 1909(3).

She died unmarried on 8 August 1922, at the age of eighty nine(4) at Kelvedon, Fairfield Road, Croydon.

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 London & Middlesex QM Births Digest: her father is described as an umbrella manufacturer
- 2 J Friends Hist Soc vol 27 (1930) p 15
- 3 Typescript committee lists, Friends House Library
- 4 Digest of Deaths: she is described as a spinster

MORLAND, Lucy Fryer (1864-1945)

Lucy Fryer Morland was born in Croydon on 12 June 1864, the eldest child of Charles Coleby and Jane Morland. She was educated at Croydon High School for Girls, The Mount, and Bedford College. After taking her B.A., she taught mathematics at Croydon High School, but in 1897 gave up teaching to throw herself into public work. She was a Governor of Croydon High School, a member of Croydon Education Committee and, for many years, on Friends Central Education Committee.

After serving on the National Executive of the Women's Liberal Federation she became associated with the Labour Party. She was keenly interested in women's suffrage and in pacifism, being a foundation member of the W.I.L.

In 1915 she became Chairman of the Croydon Mothers and Infants Welfare Association.

She was Clerk of Kingston M.M. and Chairman of the War and Social Order Committee of Y.M. In 1915 she gave the Swarthmore Lecture on 'The new Social Outlook'.

She made four visits to Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, drawing scattered members together and linking them with Friends in Great Britain through circular letters.

Later in life she became completely crippled by arthritis.

'She is remembered by Friends in far off lands for her weighty contributions and wise guidance, but more than all for her meeting with them in worship in Meeting Houses and in homes. Lucy F. Morland came to mean a great deal to these Friends who shared their homes with her, and they remember her with gratitude, not only for her service but for herself.'

She died on 15 March 1945.

Testimony of Croydon & Southwark M.M. in Y.M. Proc. 1946, p.195

GRACE (1884-1922)

after 1906 Grace

[Margaret Sarah Morland, daughter of Charles Coleby Morland (1839-1908 qv) and his wife Jane (born Fryer, 1843-1923 qv) of Croydon in Surrey, was married in 1906 to Augustine Neave Grace (1875-1953 qv) of Croydon]

See GRACE, Margaret Sarah (1884-1922) born Morland]

MEG Oct 1983

WBE:

MORLAND, Mary Adelaide, nee Robson, 1867-1933

b. Aug. 9, 1867 at Saffron Walden, Eng., daughter of Joseph John and Caroline Robson.

ed. 1882 The Mount School, Eork. She was the first girl to ride a bicycle in Saffron Walden.

m., 1895, Harold John Morland. Children. The first two years of their marriage they lived at Leighton Park School where he was a teacher.

1898 removed to Addiscombe where H.J.M. took up work as a chartered accountant (see biog.)

M.A.M. always was deeply interested in the schoool at Saffron Walden, where she had been born and raised.

d. Dec. 20, 1933 at Croydon, Eng, aged 66 years.

The Friend (London), 91(1933):1181, 1192 (portrait)

MORLAND, Mary Elizabeth (1898 - 1980)
after 1921 Stokes.

Mary Elizabeth Morland, only daughter of John Coleby (1865 - 1940 qv.) and Elizabeth
(b. Bracher) Morland married Henry Fölliott Scott Stokes (1896-1976 qv.)
at Street FMH on February 8, 1921.

SEE

STOKES, Mary Elizabeth Scott (1898 - 1980) b. Morland.

SGJ. APR.'81.

MORLAND, Mary Windsor (1873-1948) born Latchmore

Mary W.Latchmore, the daughter of Joseph and Eliza Latchmore of Leeds, was born there on 9 December 1873(1); in her childhood she was always known as May Latchmore. Instead of going to The Mount School at York, as originally intended, she stayed on at Leeds High School so as to be able to help her mother, who was becoming an invalid. On leaving school she entered Leeds Medical School.

She first met her future husband, Egbert Coleby Morland (1874-1955 qv) in 1897, but because of his breakdown in health they were not married until 1903; there were three adopted children(2). After the marriage they settled at Davos in Switzerland, where Mary Morland soon slid into continental ways and became a competent all round exponent of winter sports. In 1907 Egbert Morland won the Swiss licence to practise medicine and they moved to Arosa, where they built a chalet and Egbert became resident physician, specialising in the treatment of tuberculosis. Here for eight years Mary Morland kept open house for lonely English patients, helped to build the English Church, where Egbert read the lessons, formed an English library and settled down into the life of the village. It was towards the end of this period that, no longer expecting children of their own, they adopted their first baby.

Mary Morland and her husband did relief work on the Marne in 1915, with the Friends War Victims Relief Committee until they returned to England, where her husband had accepted a post on The Lancet. They lived for a while at New Barnet, then at Jordans and Gerrards Cross, but finally moved into London so that Egbert could be near his work and the next ten years were spent at Paddington and St John's Wood.

Mary's concern for the central work of the Society grew, especially with regard to penal reform and she served on the Penal Reform Committee from 1926 to 1949; she also served on the Agenda Committee from 1922 to 1923, the Literature Committee from 1935 to 1936, the Promises Committee from 1927 to 1949 and the Friends Service Council from 1942 to 1948. She represented Bedfordshire Quarterly Meeting on the Meeting for Sufferings from 1927 to 1931 and Yorkshire Quarterly Meeting from 1946 to 1949.(3)

During the second world war the Morlands moved to Aylesbury, where they lived in a little flat over the offices of The Lancet, which had temporarily been moved there, and she thoroughly enjoyed the pageantry of life in a small town. The came retirement to her native Yorkshire, sharing the cottage next door to the Meeting House

continued

MORLAND, Mary Windsor (1873-1948) born Latchmore
at Wooldale with her daughter and grandchildren.

continued

She died at Wooldale after a brief illness on 21 December 1948(4), at the age of seventy five.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend, vol 107 (1949) pp 7-8

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: her father is described as a wholesale draper
- 2 For marriage and children see MORLAND, Egbert Coleby (1874-1955)
- 3 Typescript committee lists, Friends House Library
- 4 Digest of Deaths: she is described as of Pell Croft, Wooldale, the wife of Egbert

B.B. There is no reference to her in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MEG Dec 1976

MORLAND, Mary (1842-1926) born Clark

Mary Clark, one of the thirteen children of James Clark (1811-1906 qv) and his wife Eleonor, born Stephens, of Street in Somerset, was born there on 24 January 1842(1). She was married in 1863 to John Morland (1837-1934 qv) of Croydon and later of Northover, Glastonbury in Somerset and there were seven children(2).

She and her husband celebrated their diamond wedding in 1923 and the directors and employees of the family firm of Clark, Son and Morland presented them with an illuminated address. Many of the factory's workers had reason to be grateful for the kindness and guidance shown them by Mary Morland in her younger days.

She died at Wyrral, Glastonbury, on 14 January 1926(3), a few days before her eighty fourth birthday.

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend, vol 66 (1926) p 84

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: her father is described as a manufacturer
- 2 For marriage and children see MORLAND, John (1837-1934)
- 3 Digest of Deaths: she is described as the wife of John

N.B. There is no reference to her in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MORLAND, Oliver (1871-1959)

Oliver Morland, the fourth son of John Morland (1837-1934 qv) and his wife Mary (born Clark, 1842-1926 qv) of Groydon in Surrey and later of Northover, Glastonbury in Somerset, was born at Northover on 5 February 1871(1). He was educated at Sidcot School from 1883 to 1884 and at Bootham School, York, from 1885 to 1887(2). As a boy his hobby was conchology, but later on he became a keen fly fisherman(3).

On leaving Bootham he was apprenticed to the Birmingham printing firm of White and Pike. A few years after completing his indentures he began business as a general printer in the city; he secured the European agency for Kalamazoo loose-leaf books and in 1903, with his cousins Paul and Francis Impey, he began a business which became world wide. He was married in 1897 to Edith Margaret Southall(4), but the marriage was childless(5). His wife accompanied him on his many journeys abroad and to summer schools in Norway and elsewhere.

He was elected to Birmingham City Council in 1919, serving as councillor and alderman for nearly thirty years. He was chairman of the Museum and Art Gallery Committee, where his interest and knowledge of art proved of great value. He served as vice-chairman of the Water Undertaking, which necessitated frequent visits to the extensive and beautiful Elan Valley supply. He was also a member of the Municipal Bank and a governor of King Edward's School, Birmingham(6).

His wife died in 1943(7) and in 1954 he married at Jordans Winifred Eileen Reynolds(8), whose care and companionship brightened the last years of his life. He was a devoted Friend; he served Warwick, Leicester & Stafford Quarterly Meeting on the Meeting for Sufferings from 1911 to 1913, the Agebda Committee from 1919 to 1920 and represented Australia and New Zealand General Meetings from 1916 to 1918 and in 1927/8(9). His faith was set upon a rock, which enabled him to be optimistic where others sometimes wavered. He was persuaded that neither death, nor life, nor things present nor things to come, could separate him from the love of God revealed in Jesus Christ. He died on 25 April 1959(10).

PRINCIPAL SOURCE

The Friend, vol 117 (1959) p 660

continued

MORLAND, Oliver (1871-1959)

continued

REFERENCES AND NOTES

- 1 Digest of Births: his father is described as a manufacturer
- 2 Sidcot Register 1808-1958, p 146
- 3 Bootham School Register 1935, p 276
- 4 The wedding was at Birmingham on 27 July 1897: he is described as a bachelor, a printer of 4 Calthorpe Road, Edgbaston, the son of John Morland, a manufacturer; she is described as a spinster of 11 Sir Harry's Road, Edgbaston, the daughter of William Southall (deceased), a chemist (Digest of Marriages)
- 5 No children are traced in the Digest of Births
- 6 Sidcot Register 1808-1958, p 146
- 7 Digest of Deaths: she died on 22 November 1943
- 8 Sidcot Register 1808-1958, p 146: there is no entry in the Digest of Marriages
- 9 Typescript committee lists, Friends House Library
- 10 The Friend, Births and Deaths, 1950-1959, Friends House Library

PUBLICATIONS

Life of William White, 1903

N.B. There is no reference to him in J Friends Hist Soc vols 1-45

MEG Dec 1976

MORLEY, Elizabeth (1726?-1767) after 17 Roberts

[Elizabeth Morley, the daughter of and Morley of was married in to William Roberts of Edmundsbury.

see ROBERTS, Elizabeth (1726?-1767) born Morley]

MORLEY, Ellen Maria (1857-) after 1886 Frank

[Ellen Maria Morley, daughter of Joseph Roberts and Elizabeth Morley of Woodbridge in Suffolk, was married in 1886 to Charles Edward Frank (1850-1936 qv).]

See FRANK, Ellen Maria (1857-) born Morley]

MEG July 1980

WBE:

MORRALL, Michael Thomas, 1818-1891

b. 1818 and lived in Newcastle, England.

m. Martha (d. 1891)

1866 published History and description of needle making.

d. Oct. 30, 1891 and was buried at Matlock Bank,
aged 73 years.

Jos. Smith's Cat., Sup., 251

An. Mon. (N.S.), 51:98

WBE:

MORRELL, John Bowes, 1873 -

WBE gives information about this British Friend whom we believe is still living so it is not included.

MORRICE, Abraham (-1704/5)

Abraham Morrice was a prominent Friends of the city and county of Lincoln. He had several children by his first wife, Elizabeth, who died in 1687. In 1689, he married Isabel Yeamans, née Fell whose death took place a few months before his own. His name occurs frequently in the Minute Book of the Monthly Meeting of the South-West part of Lincolnshire (Ms in Friends House).

Note by N. Pehney in Fox's Journal, Camb. ed. 1911 vol.2 p.492

WBE:
Additional Information

Morrice, Isabel (ca.1637-1704)

Had a pleasing and free way of expressing herself.

1679 wrote An invitation of love, &c 51 p.

Ross, M. Fell: 26, 342, 343
Frds. Hist. Lib., Sw., BX 7614